By Mrs. Henry Reiser

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Tomjack, Mike and Ray of Hastings spent the weekend at the Ralph Tomjack farm home.

Mrs. Mary Stearns returned home last week. She spent a week at the Athel Fuller home in Chadron and came by plane to Norfolk where she spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horner Stearns.

Mrs. Glenn Harpater accompanied Mrs. Bill Gibbs to Norfolk Wednesday. Danny Gibbs, who has been hospitalized in Norfolk, was able to return home.

John Sehl underwent throat surgery in St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha recently.

Mrs. Otto Reimer of Lincoln spent the weekend at the E. L. Sisson home.

Bill Tegel is doing carpenter work at the Ralph Tomjack farm. Farmers worked overtime when the weather was favorable to get the corn harvested. Many have the job completed and report good yields.

Mrs. Mary Stearns and Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Stearns and daughter plan to have Thanksgiving dinner at the Park Center Congregational church. Several from here will attend the dinner and bazaar at Elgin Thursday sponsored by the Catholic ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reimer plan to spend Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Temple and daughters in Hastings.

Mrs. Sidney Anderson will move Monday from her farm home near Park Center to her new home in O'Neill. She sold her farm last fall to Wolf Bros. and bought a new home in O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Briggs, who live on a farm near Ord, have sold their farm and are moving to Omaha. They are having a farm sale Monday, Nov. 23. Lynn Briggs and family live in Omaha where he is attending college.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Born and son of Plainview spent Sunday at the Henry Reimer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Lodge and family of Petersburg plan to spend Thanksgiving at the L. L. Bertak home.

Several from here attended the Thanksgiving dinner Sunday at the Christian church in Clearwater.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bertak visited relatives in Elgin Sunday afternoon.

Amelia News

By Miss Florence Lindsey

Mrs. Frank Pierce and Mrs. B. W. Waldo were shopping in O'Neill Thursday.

Bob Blackmore of Cheyenne, Wyo., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Blackmore on Saturday, Nov. 14. They were deer hunting while he was here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivel Thompson and daughter, Linda of Sedro Woolley, Wash., are visiting relatives here. Ivel is a brother of Leon Thompson and Mrs. Tenus Madsen. Mrs. Thompson is a sister of Mrs. Vern Sageser.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Widman and Marcia went to Lincoln, Thursday morning where they attended a music convention over the weekend. David Garwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Garwood of Amelia also represented Atkinson high school at this event.

Anton Svatos was pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening when a group of friends and relatives came to help him celebrate his 59 birthday anniversary. Although it was his birthday, Mrs. Svatos was so much surprised at the number of guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Burgett and Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Leary Carr and Leola, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Svatos and David and Orville Svatos.

Mrs. Tom Louette, sr., entered Atkinson Memorial hospital on Friday, Nov. 14 for treatment of a broken leg on her leg. Mrs. Doolittle fell from the porch at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. B. Kenney, sometime ago injuring her leg at that time.

The Amelia Progressive club met Wednesday, Nov. 18 at the home of Mrs. Bernard Blackmore. There were twelve members and three visitors present. The guests were Mrs. James Piatt of Chambers, Mrs. Clayton Burge, and Mrs. Earnie Johnston. Mrs. Elmer Coullage and Mrs. Rees presented the lesson on home made gift ideas and gift wrapping. Mrs. Rees gave several new ideas on ingenious ways that used practical materials. Our guest Mrs. James Piatt demonstrated the making of many beautiful package ties. Everyone brought ideas for making gifts and toys.

A nice box of toys was brought by the members to send to the children's ward at University hospital in Omaha.

The next meeting will be the Christmas party on Dec. 16 at the home of Mrs. Paul Fisher or if the roads do not permit, it will meet with Mrs. Ralph Rees.

The Merry Matrons club met with Mrs. Steve Sladek on Thursday, Nov. 19. Mrs. Helen Pokorny was co-hostess.

Mrs. Floyd Adams and Mrs. Blaino Otto drove to Palmer Friday where they were joined by Don Adams. The group went to Omaha and spent the weekend visiting their nephew and cousin, Jerry Kiltz and family.

Mrs. Burton Kiltz of Arlington, Va., is in Omaha visiting her son, Jerry and wife and the new grandson. Mrs. Kiltz's former Opal Ott is a sister of Mrs. Adams. Due to ill health Mrs. Kiltz was not able to visit at Amelia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rees attended a family dinner at the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Ninkham Sunday. Another sister, Mrs. Jessie Kepler of Truckee, Calif., was among the other guests.

Larry Beckwith of Page has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Blackmore.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Barnett were O'Neill callers Thursday.

Mrs. B. W. Waldo called on Mrs. Debra Ernst Friday afternoon.

Correction—It was Mrs. Calvin Barthel who was a patient in an Omaha hospital rather than Mrs. Keith Barthel as stated in a previous issue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce were Burwell callers Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnie Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. Lew Backhaus were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Fryrear.

Lonnie Sparks, Roger Waldo and Robert Burge accompanied other Chambers high school students to Neligh Friday evening to a roller skating party.

Mrs. Bob Adair accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Doolittle to O'Neill Saturday. Jerry and Diane Adair visited Grandma Adair while their mother was gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Doolittle, Kathy, Joyce, Vicki and Sue were in Burwell and Ord Saturday. Little Barbara Deen Doolittle stayed with her aunt, Mrs. Gertie Adair and Mrs. Stella Sparks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce delivered turkeys to O'Neill Saturday. The Pierces have a nice bunch of turkeys and had sold some for Thanksgiving dinners.

Mrs. Debra Ernst accompanied them to O'Neill and Atkinson. Other Amelia folks seen in Atkinson Saturday afternoon were William Fryrear, Dick Doolittle and Ralph Rees.

Mrs. Edith Andersen was a dinner guest Sunday at S. C. Barnett's. Mrs. Stella Sparks and Lonnie moved to Chambers Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nielsen and son of Omaha spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Burge and family.

Mr. and Mrs. August Pospiehal and family are enjoying a new car.
