Lynch Youths Apprehended

Two Lynch youths, Lyle Milacek and Raymond Mohl, are being held in Holt county jail charged with forgery. Both men waived preliminary hearings and bond was set at $500.

Sheriff Leo S. Tomjack apprenended the men and filed the forgery complaints. They are also being held for authorities at Columbus where they are wanted on car theft charges. Sheriff Tomjack said that the men will probably be taken to Columbus Thursday or early Friday.

Milacek allegedly wrote a $5 Mohl reportedly signed the same name to a $5 check written to Candy Bill's cafe.

Son Testifies Against Mother in Boyd Court

The case of the brace-and-bit murder of Franklin Vanderlinde was expected to go to the jury this afternoon (Thursday). But the defendant, Mrs. Sadie Dickerson, 59-year-old Boyd county farm woman and mother of Franklin, had not yet taken the stand when the jury trial adjourned at 4:20 p.m. Wednesday to resume again at 9 o'clock this

The prosecution's key witness was Nyal Franch, 17, a son of Mrs. Dickerson and a half-brother of Vanderlinde, Easily the defense's best witness until Thursday morning was Dr. Edward A. Holyoke of Omaha, professor of anatomy at the University of Nebraska college of medicine.
