Dickerson Trial

ALL MADE TO A

(continued from page 1)

tor Cronin began his summation room. Johnson escorted her to the Mr. Ed Verzal has been assisand appeal. He admonished the jury to disregard the emotional pleas made by the defense counsel. judge only on the evidence that county. The great jury system of home justice can crumble, breakdown, if you do not speak out honestly dict to Nyal, who was in his cell. in your verdict. There has been nothing sinister or trumped up, as defense counsel imagines. This has been a slow process. Boyd County Attorney Wills filed first degree murder charges before I was brought into the case as a special assistant. No one can question Wills's honesty and integrity.

In this murder; neither has there county (Boyd's neighbor on the "We have not stressed motive been motive in juvenile gangland murders being committed in Chicage and New York.

The defense has tried during the trial and in their closing argufents to create side issues, to ticing lawyers were in the Boyd cover the trial. There is no place before justice for side issues. spectators. There wasn't a defense witness who could refute Nyal's story that John Chavla of Monowi, a col-Mrs. Dickerson killed Franklin orful Boyd resident, was a juror Vanderlinde. Early in this case, prospect. When he faced the both the mother and Nyal lied. judges' bench he offered a mili-Nyal told the truth to authorities tary salute with a flourish. He

July 1 and has told the truth was not accepted. since. He told the truth on this stand," pointing to the witness chair.

"On unimportant details there have been sofe minor dischepancies, but on material things the story is the same: The mother killed Vanderlinde.

"Defense makes great issue of the lip and facial wounds. If the bailiff and the court matron: Mr. bit had hit Vanderlinde in the mouth, as they infer, the same blow could not have penetrated his skull four or five inches. "Defense says Mrs. Dickerson was trying to protect her son with manufactured stories, such a a having accident. Mrs. Dickerson haying accident. Mrs. Dickerson cases were picked up by the cus- with Mrs. Norbert Clark in charge was not protecting 17-year-old todian at one of the recesses. Nyal then or isn't now. She's pro-

What did Doctor Holyoke say? After acquittal. Sadie spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hantecting Sadie Dickerson. He said the hole in the skull was sen of Butte, who had testified in bigger than the bit and the hole her behalf. Then she returned to was irregular. He also admitted, O'Neill, did some shopping and on the stand he did not know there voluntarily spent her last night in and for a pot luck dinner and had been mortuary probings con- Nebraska in her former cell at Christmas party. Games, singing ducted with a rod and with the Holt courthouse. "She wanted the same brace-and-bit and that to rest, bathe and freshen up," these probings were done between according to Holt Sheriff Leo, the time of Vanderlinde's death Tomjack, who had befriended and the time of his (Holyoke's) Sadie all along and insisted she Mrs. Ben Wayman. There was an laboratory experiments. He admit- was innocent. Early Sunday Tomted these probings could have al- jack and his wife wangled two Officers will be an antomologist, a scientist, and Sadie and placed her on a westcian. "It's uncontradicted by evidence or by witness that the mother killed the boy," Cronin concluded. Judge Lyle E. Jackson read the instructions to the jury detailing ager of the O'Neill office for the toned. The trial was over. Mrs. Dickerson, who had hustled past 17 years, says that at the her skirt over her head earlier present the farmer-rancher owned to avoid a camera, rejoiced. Im- association has 576 borrower-memmediately she received congratu- bers and a total of $5,628,100 in At 2:05 p.m., Special Prosecu- lations of some-but not all-in the outstanding loans.

jury box where she shook hands tant manager for the past four with each member of the jury-one woman and 11 men. Her Frank C. Kruntorad, president, of Search your own conscience and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Han- Ewing, Alnard Heerman, vicesen of Butte, who had testified in president, of Naper and E. J. has been placed in the record. her behalf, were notified and she Revell, O'Neill, Ralph Hoffman, You speak for the people of Boyd spent the night with them in their Ewing and Wilbur L. Moon, Stuart.

COURTHOUSE CLOSED

The courthouse will be closed Nyal buried his head and wept. Saturday, Dec. 26 following Christmas.

Veterans' Forms Mailed The Holt County Department of

(continued from page 1) For a time Wednesday Holt

Sadie was free.

Sheriff Collins reported the ver-

Trial Sidelights

Veteran's Affairs said this week that annual income questionnaires will be mailed this month had only one member of the bar within the boundaries, and he is O'Neill Postmaster Ira H. to Nebraska veterans, widows, de-pendant children and parents receiving Veterans Administra-Moss, a non-practicing lawyer. (The Holt county judge is not a tion non-service-connected disabili-member of the bar.) All the prac-

The questionnaires will be in courtroom as trial participants or the mail no later than December 31 and regulations require that pension payments are stopped if the form is not returned to the Lincoln Regional office within 30 > days. Any veteran or dependant needing assistance with the questionaire should contact Alvin Heese, Holt County Veteran Service Officer.

Defense Counsel William L. Brennan, who suffers from low blood pressure was conspicuously absent several times. He Club Notes complained of "nose bleeds."

Shepherding the jurors were the Better Ways Extension Members of the Better Ways and Mrs. M. V. Jordan of Butte. Extension club had their Christmas party Thursday night. Fol-High school students from Butte, lowing a short business meeting Spencer and Lynch sampled the games and cards were played and of the games. Next month's meeting will be with Mrs. Virgil Tom-

Rebekah

Rebekah Lodge members met Friday night in regular session and cards were the evening's entertainment.

Card winners were Mrs. D. A. Baker, Mrs. Marlin Luber, and Officers will be installed Janu-Melvin Klingler, noble grand, Mrs.

Ads - It Pays !

instructions to the jury, detailing the ingredients of first degree but wouldn't She had bue fare and murder, second degree murder, but wouldn't. She had bus fare and manslaughter and acquittal. At a little cash. Proceeds of a personal property sale plus Vander-3:17 p.m., the jury filed into the deliberation room off the northlinde's estate are either dwindled or tied up in estate proceedings. west corner of the courtroom. The The sum, a few thousand dollars, jurors took time out to eat an eveis still subject to attorney fees for her defense. Mrs. Dickerson did ning meal. Shortly after 8 o'clock, Judge D. R. Mounts, who had been sitting all four days with Judge Jackson, was summoned from O'Neill for spacial instructions

O'Neill for special instructions. Present for the 10 o'clock written

The Dickerson trial coverage for The Frontier was provided by Cal Stewart, former owner of The and complete price of ONLY $5.52. exchange were the constituted court officials, Wills, Brennan, court officials, whils, the man Johnson, Sadie and others. The foreman, E. J. Richter, Spencer farmer, asked the question: "Does only the forman sign the verdict or do all members of the jury sign?" The question was answered in writing; the jury room door closed again. There was tense-ness and something in the air in-dicated the verdict was imminent. It was. Word spread. Others hur-ried into the room on the second ried into the room on the second ried into the room on the second the Frontier was powner of The Stewart, former owner of The Frontier. Stewart also covered the from The Omaha World-Herald and United Press-International, and provided direct telephonic re-ports to Radio WNAX, Yankton, S. D., and Radio KMMJ, Grand Island. He was hampered in his radio reporting by an attack of laryngitis. OMICHEL Was powner of The from the Omaha World-Herald and United Press-International, and provided direct telephonic re-ports to Radio WNAX, Yankton, S. D., and Radio KMMJ, Grand Island. He was hampered in his radio reporting by an attack of laryngitis. OMICHEL Was powner of The from the omaha World-Herald and provided direct telephonic re-ports to Radio WNAX, Yankton, S. D., and Radio KMMJ, Grand Island. He was hampered in his radio reporting by an attack of laryngitis. OMICHEL Was powner of The from the owner of the set of eight spark plugs. Send only the make, the year of your car or truck. Prompt ship-ment of your Registered, Uncondi-tionally Guaranteed NICKEL SIL-VER $16.00 per set of eight Spark Plugs, will be made to you for NO RISK, 10,000 MILES. FREE TRIAL. Deposit ONLY $5.52, plus few cents postage with the post-floor of the frame 56-year-old Boyd courthouse that bore a touch of yule here and there. The jury filed into the box.

(Advertisement) READ THIS FREE TRIAL OFFER!

revolutionary, simply amazing, NICKEL SILVER $16 SPARK

O'Neill Loan Association To Change Name Soon Lyle P. Dierks, manager of the

Murray's

