Cardinals Lose First Game, 51-50

St. Mary's Cardinals, leading only once, dropped their first basketball game of the season Tuesday night to a fired-up Norfolk Sacred Heart five, 51-50. Cold Cardinal shooting plus many fouls prevented the losers from being contenders in the first half. St. Mary's hit on only 8 of 34 shots before the intermission. Glass bank boards may have given the Cardinals some trouble in the first half, but they scored

22 points in the third period to close the gap by 3 points. Gale Stevens hit 20 points for the Cards to take the scoring honors. Larry Muddloff scored 11 and Bernie Kamphatts notched 9. SMA 9 10 22 9-50 Norfolk 11 15 18 7-31
