Cheese Chips Are Tasty Says Supervisor Perry

Warm, crisp cheese chips are worthy accompaniments for egg nog or other libation served during the holiday season, says Bill Perry, local supervisor of the Meadow Gold Dairy who gave us the recipe.

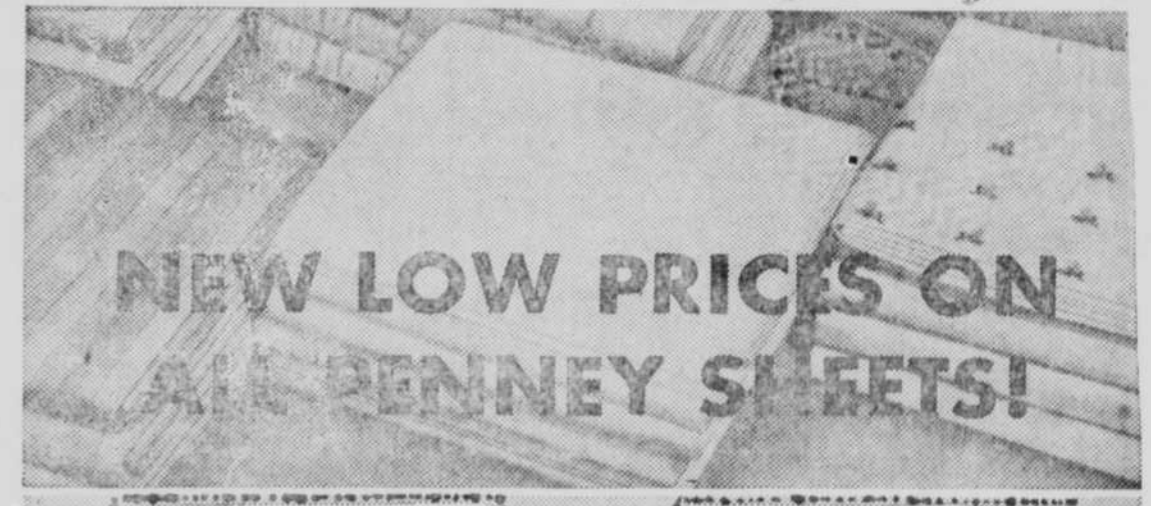

On the order of today's popular refrigerator cookie dough, the savory cheese mixture can be prepared ahead, refrigerated, and then sliced and baked as needed, according to Beatrice Cooke who developed the appetizer in the company's Chicago test kitchens. Remember them, too, for after the holidays. They go well with salads and soups.

Cheese Chips

- 2 tablespoons butter
 - 2 tablespoons shortening
 - 1 cup cake flour
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1 cup grated natural cheddar cheese
 - 3 tablespoons milk
 - Celery, poppy or caraway seeds
- Cut shortening into flour and salt. Add cheese and mix thoroughly. Add milk and mix until blended. Shape into a roll about 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Wrap in waxed paper and chill until firm. Cut thin slices and place on greased cookie sheet. Brush with milk and sprinkle with seeds. Bake at 400 degrees about 12 minutes or until delicately browned.
