Carolyn Lindberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lindberg became the bride of Thomas Ehlers, Blair, Sunday at the Methodist Church. The couple will live in Lincoln where he is attending Nebraska Wesleyan.

Lindberg-Ehlers Vows Exchanged Sunday At Methodist Church

Before an altar decorated with Christmas poinsettias, white mums and candelabra, Miss Carolyn Esther Lindberg became the bride of Thomas Charles Ehlers Sunday at 3 p.m.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lindberg and the bridegroom the son of Dr. and Mrs. D. R. Ehlers, Blair. Rev. Glenn Kennicott performed the double ring ceremony at the First Methodist Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in her sister's wedding dress, a gown of white nylon featuring a molded bodice and scoop neckline trimmed in Venice embroidery. The bouffant skirt was accented by panels of embroidered motifs and extended to a chapel train.

Her elbow length veil was held by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white orchid surrounded by feathered carnations. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Rod Wilmuth, Clifton, Colo. was her sister's matron of honor. Sherry Shanahan, Wahoo, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Pat Mahoney, Lincoln, and Beverly Linquist, O'Neill. They wore dark green velvet sheath dresses with green lace overskirts. They carried white muffs with holly trim and matching white headpieces.

Sharon Nelson and Nancy Darling, Falls City, were candlelighters, wearing white robes and red carnation wrist corsages.

Dale Zehring, Lincoln, was best man, Robert Madsen, Blair, John Blatter, Blair, and Dale Lansing, Murdock, were groomsmen, while Lonny Ehlers, Lincoln, and Ivan Misfeldt, Blair, were ushers.

Miss Mardy Johnson, Norfolk, was at the organ and Doug Anderson of Wausa sang, "I Love Thee" and "Wedding Prayer".

The mother of the bride wore a dress of gold and beige silk print with matching accessories, and the mother of the bridegroom was attired in a beige lace dress with accessories to match. They wore corsages of white feathered carnations.

A reception for 100 guests followed the ceremony in the church parlors, given by the bride's parents. The table was centered with the wedding cake and holiday decorations were the theme.

Mrs. Lonny Ehlers, Lincoln, cut the cake and coffee was served by Mrs. Ted Lindberg, Minneapolis, Minn. Mrs. Paul Shelhamer served punch. At the guest book was Shirley Schultz, Grand Island, and Lois Puckett, Atkinson, was at the gift table.

For her going away, the bride chose a white wool dress with a black coat and shoes and white accessories. Following a short wedding trip the couple will live at 1640 S. 38th St., Lincoln.

The bride is a graduate of O'Neill high school and attended Nebraska Wesleyan for two years where she was affiliated with Phi Mu sorority. She had been teaching prior to her wedding.

Mr. Ehlers is a graduate of Blair high school and is now attending Nebraska Wesleyan in Lincoln.

Beaudette-Boelter Wed In Wausa Church Rite

Miss Carolyn Beaudette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ewood Beaudette of Wausa and Vernon Boelter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boelter of Orchard were married Saturday evening, Dec. 12 at the Thabor Lutheran church at Wausa. Rev. Philip E. Larson officiated. Mrs. Dale Johnson sang, Richard Williams was accompanist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father appeared in a floor length gown of silk faced peau de soie and pointe D Argentine lace. The strapless hand shirred bodice was topped with a jacket of hand clipped scalloped lace designed with a Peter Pan collar, half sleeves and buttoned down the back. The aisle wide skirt was ringed with rows of lace ruffles and was worn over satin and hoops.

A finger tip veil trimmed in lace was held by a crown of sequins and pearls. The bride carried red roses on a white Bible.

Miss Carol Beaudette, twin sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Geraldine Johnson, Sioux City was bridesmaid. Their gowns were holiday red festoon lace with satin trim. They wore matching white head pieces and lace veils and carried bouquets of red roses, white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Debbie Beaudette was flower girl and Floyd Strope of Orchard was ring bearer. Roland Johnson was candlelighter.

Merle Boelter of Creighton was best man and Merlin Mittes of Orchard was groomsmen. Ushers were Richard Beaudette of Wausa and Allen Boelter of Verdigr.

Hosias at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Johnson and Mrs. Arlen Beaudette. Vonda Beaudette was in charge of the gift table and Miss Kathy Piek registered the guests.

Assisting with the serving were Mesdames Ronald Elb, Duane Erickson and Merle Boelter and Misses Barbara Brockman, Barbara Miller, Marian Moser and Jannele Coeberburg.

The bride is a graduate of the Wausa high school and the bridegroom was graduated from Orchard. He served two years in the army.

Lila Dailey Wed To Kenneth J. Embree

Miss Lila Lea Dailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dailey, became the bride of Kenneth James Embree, son of Mrs. Gertrude Embree, Washington, Ia., Saturday at the First Methodist Church.

The 2 p.m. ceremony was performed by Rev. Glenn Kennicott. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white nylon tulle and chantilly lace gown over drop skirts of net and satin. The scalloped lace Sabrina neckline formed a V in back and her fitted sleeves tapered to bridal points.

A deep flounce and full length front panel of lace highlighted the floor length bouffant skirt. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Shirley Schultz, Grand Island, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of blue nylon over taffeta and carried a pink and white carnation bouquet.

Dean Clyde, cousin of the bride was best man. Ushers were Jim Johnson and Bob Porter.

Poinsettias decorated the altar. Solos were "Through the Years", "I Love You Truly", and "The Lord's Prayer", sung by Betty Schultz accompanied by Miss Connie Kurtz.

A reception for 63 guests given by the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Beverly Linquist was at the guest book and in charge of the gifts were Miss Linquist and Betty Rossman, Garden Grove, Calif.

The bridal cake was cut by Bonidell Clyde. Marilyn Shelhamer served punch and coffee was poured by Dorothy Lawrence.

The bride is a graduate of O'Neill high school and has been employed the past two years by Champion insurance Co., Compton, Calif.

The bridegroom was graduated from Washington high school and is an interior decorator.

Following a wedding trip to Iowa the couple will live in Iowa City, Ia. (Photo Below)
