

County Tourney Enters Third Round Tonight

The Holt county tournament goes into the third night of play tonight but at press time the final pairings were still pretty much undecided.

The first round games, scheduled for Monday night, were postponed until Tuesday night. Tuesday's games were played on Wednesday night, a night which was previously open.

In Tuesday night play Atkinson St. Joseph's five scored 69 to 38. St. Joseph's five scored 19 points in each of the first three quarters and then coasted in with 12 points in the final period.

Tom Schaaf of St. Joe had high scoring honors as he poured in 22 points. Tom Brewster dumped 20 for Stuart.

Ewing squeaked by in the opener Tuesday night downing Atkinson 62-60. Ewing led going into the final period, 49-43, but the determined Atkinson squad narrowed the score and it took a last second basket to win it for the Tigers.

Jerry Tams led the winners with 19 points while Dick Funk was high point man for Atkinson with 18.

In the final game of Tuesday's play, Page outlasted Chambers, 50-41, although the score was knotted a number of times. The nine-point advantage at the close of the game was the most that Page was able to widen the score the entire game.

Fred Cronk paced Page with 18 points and both Bob Gartner and Darrell Elkins of Chambers had 14.

O'Neill St. Mary's met O'Neill high school in the first game of a double-header that got under way last night at 7. Inman was matched against Ewing in the second game.

Tonight St. Mary's will take on Atkinson St. Joseph's at 8:30 and Page will play Ewing, the game to start at 7. The winners of these games will play tomorrow night for the championship. Game time is 8:30. The consolation game will be played at 7.

Miss Sharon Kay Miller became the bride of Russell D. Brugman, January 9. The couple, married in St. Patrick's Catholic church at O'Neill, will live in Omaha.

Sharon Miller Wed To Iowan in O'Neill Ceremony, January 9

Miss Sharon Kay Miller, Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miller, Spencer, and formerly of O'Neill, became the bride of Russell D. Brugman, Iowan, son of Mr. Lloyd Brugman, Atlantic, Ia., and Mrs. Evalyn Davis, Omaha, on January 9.

Rev. Robert Duffy performed the double ring ceremony at St. Patrick's Catholic church here. Gene Jitz and Ronnie Clark sang "On This Day" and "Mother Beloved", accompanied by Sister M. Michael.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of pure silk bombazine and re-embroidered alencon lace. The molded bodice was fashioned with a lace trimmed portrait neckline embellished with pearls and sequins. The bou-fant skirt extended into a chapel train and was strewn with lace medallions.

She wore a single strand of pearls and pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom. Her bouquet was a nosegay of white roses.

Miss Barbara Miller, Seattle, Wash., was her sister's maid of honor, and Nancy Dryer, Atlantic, Ia., and Miss LaVonne Miller, Seattle, Wash., were bridesmaids. They all wore gowns of royal blue and white fur head bands, and carried white fur muffs adorned with royal blue carnations.

Dennis Craney, Atlantic, was best man and Dave Dryer, Marysville, Mo., and Kenneth Grippie, Atlantic, were groomsmen. Ushers were Don Arny, Omaha, and Ron Bell, Atlantic.

The bride's mother wore a tan wool dress with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother chose a two piece beige knit dress. Both wore corsages of pink feathered carnations.

A dinner for the bridal party followed the ceremony with a reception for 100 guests at 2 p.m. The four tier wedding cake, baked by Mrs. Cecil Miller was decorated in royal blue and white by Mrs. Paul Nelson.

At the gift table was Carol Herbst, Omaha, and Mrs. Dave Dryer, Marysville, Mo., registered the guests. Miss Elaine Miller served punch.

The Misses Mardelle Vitt, Joan Wilson and Lois Strong served. Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. Orville Miller, Mrs. Jim Doulin and Mrs. Francis Clark.

For traveling the bride wore a cocoa brown suit trimmed in matching fur and matching accessories.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy and is employed by Mutual of Omaha.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Atlantic High school and has attended the University of Omaha. He is employed by Continental Baking Co. in Omaha, where the couple will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Strong of O'Neill announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marilyn Strong, to Vernon Passieux, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Passieux, also of O'Neill.

Miss Strong is attending Beauty School at Norfolk and Mr. Passieux is employed by Shelhamer Equipment.

A fall wedding is planned.
