Moon, D. Kehn Are Elected To Land Bank Board

Wilbur L. Moon, Stuart, and Don Kehn, Butte, were elected board directors for three year terms last Wednesday at the annual stockholders meeting of the O'Neill Federal Land Bank Association

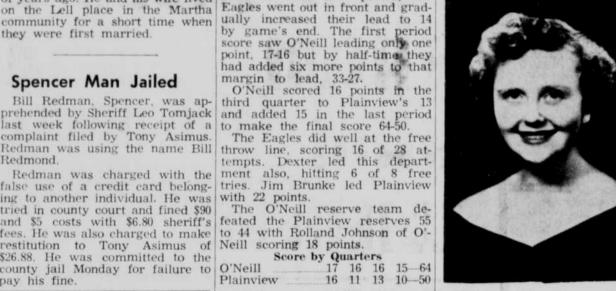

The directors were elected at the business meeting held at the Royal Theater with Moon presiding. Other member directors are Frank Kruntorad, Ewing, chairman of the board, Emmet J. Revell and Ralph Hoffman, Ewing. In spite of last week's bad weather, 104 members and guests registered for the meeting. They were served dinner following the morning session at the M and M. Cafe

R. Edward Bauer, member of the Eight Farms Credit Banks, Omaha, was guest speaker. Mr. Bauer spoke on the relation of agriculture to the national economy and mentioned the trend of larger units of operation causing the small operators to seek supplementary incomes off the farm. He also stressed the present need for agricultural production controls and subsidy payment on certain crops. Manager Lyle P. Dierks gave the financial report of the association which showed a net earning to the association of $8,880.75 with 567 loans outstanding of $5,569,-700.00.
