It is a good thing to be rich, and a good thing to be strong, but it is a better thing to be beloved by many friends.—Eripides.

February is gone. The flu bug has caused many and there is a child out of school about every day because of sickness. No doubt it is the same wherever you go. Days of sunshine and less sickness will be welcomed by everyone.

Sewing—when using a double edged razor blade for ripping, put a piece of adhesive tape on one side and it will lessen the danger of getting cut.

DID YOU KNOW—that Theodore Roosevelt in 1906 became the first American to win the Nobel Peace Prize.

If you sometimes wonder just how much liquid to use when making biscuits, a good rule is to use just enough to make a soft dough, but not sticky. A dough that can be handled without sticking makes the lightest, flakiest biscuits.

Stews are a economical dish and it can be varied by the addition of liquids such as tomato juice, cream of mushroom soup, tomato sauce or sour cream.

Some of the seasonings which may add just a bit of tang to the stew are: one-half bay leaf, sprig whole cloves or peppercorns, one small clove of garlic finely chopped, one teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, one tablespoon catsup, one tablespoon celery seed or one-half teaspoon celery salt. These various measurements are for one pound of meat with the vegetables.

When getting the vegetables for the stew just put in the ones which meet your family's approval and then you are certain it will be readily eaten.

Here is a stew that makes use of several vegetables and is known as:

- HARVEST STEW
1 pound beef
1 1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup water
1/2 cup onion chopped
1 cup lima beans cooked
1 cup corn (whole kernel)
1 cup mushrooms sliced
1 cup carrots sliced
1 cup canned tomatoes
1 cup macaroni 1-inch pieces
1 sprig thyme or parsley
Cut the beef in cubes and brown in 2 tablespoons hot fat in a heavy kettle. Add water and salt. Cook for 1 1/2 hours or until meat is tender at a simmering temperature, keeping the kettle covered. Then add the vegetables, macaroni and thyme or parsley and cook for another 20 or 30 minutes until all ingredients are tender. Add more seasoning if it needs it. This will serve five.

If you would like to send me your favorite recipe or short-cuts in doing up your ingredients, send them to your letters to Mrs. Sarah Michaelis, Box 155, Inman, Nebraska.
