Cardinals End Season; Name Seven Lettermen

The Academy Cardinals finished with a 13-7 record for the 1959-60 basketball season. Fielding a team with good height but lacking in experience the Cardinals were known as a hot and cold team. They always seemed to play their best against the good teams while having trouble with the weaker opponents.

Highlights of the season were a pair of wins over O'Neill high, victories over Spencer, St. Joe and St. Ladgers and a close game with Niohara. On the dark side were defeats by Norfolk Sacred Heart and Bassett.

The Cardinals had six men scoring over a hundred points, with Gale Stevens leading with 340 points. Gale also set a SMA single game record when he collected 35 points against Springfield in the opening round of the district tournament. Others and their scoring: Bernard Kampphaus 154, Ronnie Holly 142, Jerry Gokie 134, Larry Mudloff 129, Jim Spitzberger 106.
