

Miss Karen Kaup united in marriage to Paul F. Seger at St. Joseph's Catholic church, Atkinson.

Karen Kaup Weds Paul Seger Feb. 27 In Atkinson Ceremony

Miss Karen Kaup, daughter of Dorothy Kaup and the late Herman Kaup, Atkinson, became the bride of Paul F. Seger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Seger, Atkinson, in a 10 a. m. ceremony February 27.

Rev. R. J. Parr officiated the double ring ceremony before 300 guests at St. Joseph's Catholic church in Atkinson. The St. Joseph's high school choir sang.

Escorted to the altar by her grandfather, Ben Kaup Sr., Stuart, the bride wore a gown of original imported chateau lace featuring a fitted bodice with a scalloped sash and neckline accented by seed pearls. The sleeves tapered to the wrist and the full gathered skirt fashioned into tiers of scalloped lace at the hemline over tiers of tulle ruffles and silk taffeta. The gown extended into a chapel train of lace tiers.

A crown of white seed pearls held the veil of English illusion lace. Her bouquet was of white orchids on a white prayerbook. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings, gifts from the bridegroom.

Miss Karen Rose, Omaha, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Phyllis Kaup and Margaret Seger, sisters of the couple. They were gown in shrimp silk organza ballerina length gowns. The fitted bodices were accented by sash and necklines and the full feathered skirts were worn over full petticoats. They wore headpieces similar to the bride's with nose-tip veils. Their bouquets were of white carnations.

Miss Janet Kaup was flower girl and ring bearer was Robert Schaaf. Schaaf, Omaha, was best man. Ushers were Leonard and Duane Jansen, Pierz, Minn., Raymond Schaefer, Atkinson, and Dick Brooks, Norfolk.

Also attending the bridegroom were Ralph Kaup, Atkinson, and Larry Wevel, Atkinson.

A dinner at noon and reception from 2 to 4 p. m. followed the ceremony, given by the bride's mothers at the Knights of Columbus Hall. The seven tier wedding cake was baked and decorated by Connie Coufal. Mrs. Elmer Schaaf baked the bridegroom's cake.

Mrs. Ed Callahan attended the guest book while Joan and Doris Grof, Janice Engler and Mrs. Dean Gokle assisted at the gift table.

Serving punch and coffee were Mrs. Thomas Kaup and Mrs. Dick Henning. Mrs. Henry Kruger acted the wedding cake.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a white lace sheath underlined with powder blue acetate taffeta and wore white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of St. Joseph's high school and has been employed at the Atkinson Memorial hospital. The bridegroom also is a St. Joseph's graduate, attended Norfolk Junior college for 2 years and Kearney State Teacher's College for one year. After March 10 the couple will live in Chicago.
