Recent weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Rotherham were their son and daughter, Ronald and Beverly, both of Lincoln. The Misses Kay, Rotherham and Peggy Sullivan, both students of St. Mary's Academy at O'Neill, who were in Lincoln on business returned to Ewing with Ron and Beverly and remained for the weekend at the Rotherham home.

The heavy snowstorm of April first did not prevent the nominating committee of the Women's Society of Christian Service from holding their meeting as scheduled at the home of Mrs. L. A. Hobbs. Others present were Mrs. Albert Larsen, Mrs. Willis Rockey and Miss Hazel Ruby.

Mrs. W. W. Elliott, who attended the annual meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service held at Fremont last week, reports that it was necessary to do much detouring due to flood waters, on her return to Ewing on April first. The heavy snowfall accompanied by dense fog, as they neared home, made driving hazardous.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Larsen this week are his brother and wife of Wood, S. D. They plan on going to Rochester, Minn., as soon as highways are opened to travel after the flood waters recede.

Melvin Pruden, U. S. Army, who has been home on a thirty day leave left Saturday to go to Oakland, Calif., where he will soon be sent to Korea for service. His brother, Donald and Dick Wright took him to Grand Island to continue on his way by train.

Mrs. Edna Lofquest transacted business in Neligh on Wednesday, also called at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Reuben Meyers and family there and her aunt, Mrs.

Lillie Meyers at Clearwater. The teachers and officers of the Ewing Methodist church and the United Presbyterian church met Saturday evening at the United Presbyterian annex to make plans for the vacation Bible school.

Due to the dates for youth summer camps for both churches and conference week for the Methodist church, June 20th was set as the day for classes.

Mrs. Mabel Boies celebrated her 81st birthday anniversary on Sunday, April 3. On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Minnie Larson entertained at her home a group of neighbors honoring Mrs. Boies, for an informal coffee hour. On Sunday she was the honored guest at a family dinner at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Boies in North Ewing.

During the afternoon other relatives and friends called to offer their congratulations.

Mrs. Boies, who lives in southeast Ewing, makes daily trips down town after her mail and it is not unusual for her to "run" errands for her neighbors. She attends the Ewing Methodist church regularly each Sunday for the worship hour and remains for the Sunday school session where she is a member of the adult Bible class. She is a member of the Women's Society of Christian Service also the American Legion Auxiliary, and seldom misses attending the monthly sessions of each.

Mrs. Minnie Larson accompanied her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cressel Anderson and family of Bloomfield, to Butte on Sunday where they visited relatives and friends.

The seniors of the Ewing high school presented their class play "Me and My Shadow" a three-act comedy Thursday evening, March 31, under the direction of Mrs. Amber Schlotman. The crowd was not as large as usual due to the bad road conditions in the country and the intermittent showers which began early in the evening.

In the cast were: Jerry Jefferies, Charlotte Wright, Coralee Schmisser, Catherine Woslager, Bill Bauer, Evelyn Scholl, Lois Kaczor, Gary Eacker and Tim Koenig.

The evening's entertainment opened with a band concert under the direction of Supt. G. D. Ryan. Between acts the triple trio: Patty Hobbs, Kay Bergstrom, Bonnie Kaczor, Linda Larson, Lois Kaczor and Ardis Parks sang, "It's Me," solo, "Green Cathedral" by Kay Bergstrom; song, "Every time I Feel the Spirit" by the mixed double: Lois Kaczor, Linda Larson, Ardis Parks, Kay Bergstrom, Ron Cloyd, Jerry Jefferies, Douglas Shrader and Bill Bauer; song, "Great is Thy Love" by sextet: Coralee Schmisser, Betty Wright, Kay Bergstrom, Linda Larson, Bonnie Kaczor, Lois Kaczor, Ardis Parks and Patty Hobbs. Pianists were Sharon Johnson and Wilbur Spangler. Student directors were Tom Koenig and James Miller.

Mrs. Schlotman was presented a gift by the class.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Zimmerman were guests on Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zimmerman at Battle Creek. Other members of the family present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zimmerman and family of Sioux City, Ia.
