Amelia News

By Miss Florence Lindsey

Friday, April 1 brought one of the worst storms (snow) of the season to this vicinity. Roads that were already almost impassible, became worse, and travel was brought almost to a standstill. The mail was not able to get here Friday or Saturday. There were no services at either the Methodist or Catholic Churches on Sunday. The highways to Chambers and Atkinson were both impassible except by aid of a tractor. However we received mail again on Monday.

We received about 12 inches of snow and rain.

Mrs. Maude Forbes and Patty Frahm visited Mrs. Lindsey and Florence Sunday afternoon. Patty is staying with her grandmother to attend school, while the roads are so bad.

Mrs. Margie Sammons of Sioux City, Ia. came Monday to visit her son, Bill Sammons and family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton spent Sunday evening at Dunk Peterson's.

Mrs. Edith Andersen, Mrs. Lindsey and Florence spent Sunday evening at Blake Ott's.

Mrs. Dunk Peterson accompanied Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton to Atkinson Wednesday of last week. Ten ladies were present Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Edith Andersen, to take part in the study lesson on the Bible's gospel of Luke. Mrs. Charles Gates of Atkinson presented the lesson. Another study will be given April 12.

Mrs. Marvin Doolittle and sons

Rodney and Rickie visited several days with Mrs. Elsie Doolittle and boys at Stuart.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Watson visited at Blake Ott's Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Bertie Adair returned Sunday from Fort Lewis, Wash. where she had spent the past three months visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Col. and Mrs. George Fogie and family.

Don Adams and Elsworth Mumma, one of his teacher buddies came from Palmer Saturday evening and visited overnight with Don's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Adams.

Miss Beth Watson visited over the March 27th weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Watson. Mrs. William Thompson and Paul Fisher attended the funeral of their brother, Amos Fisher at Greenville, Ill. on March 30. They returned home Saturday. Mr. Thompson stayed with his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Gene Thompson while they were away.

Vernon Thompson went to Atkinson Sunday and brought Mrs. Thompson and the new little daughter, Adele Ann home from the Atkinson Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Maude Forbes returned home Wednesday after a few days visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Briggs and boys at Rose.

Miss Myrtle White of Amelia, psychology education and sociology student at Greenville College, Greenville, Ill. has been placed on the college honor roll, which signifies a grade average of 3.50 or above for the semester.

Miss White, a senior at Greenville is active in Alpha Kappa Sigma, SEA, Life Service League and the Social Work Club. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn White of Amelia.

The Merry Matrons club met with Mrs. Asa Watson, March 31, with Mrs. Irvin Forbes as co-hostess. A dinner was served. Due to bad roads only 10 members were present.

Mrs. George Fullerton and Mrs. Harlan Dierking drew the hostess prizes. Mrs. Blake Ott acted as secretary for Mrs. Jack Winings.

The club is collecting old tynons, old jewelry, buttons, scraps of cloth, ribbon and yarn to send to a Mental Retarded Home in Redfield, S. D. All members are asked to bring what they have to the next meeting April 21, at Mrs. Lee Gilman's home. It was voted to send $5. to the Heart Fund. One birthday card and one get-well card was sent.

The meeting adjourned and cake and coffee were served.

VETERINARY NEEDS
The wet, snowy weather has been hard on new calves. Don't wait for Scours to start in your calves. Have a good scours medication on hand and be ready to start treatment immediately. The sooner treatment can be started for scours, the better the results will be. We carry several excellent scours preparations, including Sulfa-Strep, Terramycin A. D. Tablets, Aureomycin, Kaostrep, and other good remedies made by the most reliable of manufacturers.

Pneumonia and other respiratory infections are often the results of exposure to cold wet weather such as we have been having. Penicillin-Dihydrostreptomycin combination usually brings good results when used in conditions of this kind. We carry this product in both the 10cc and 100cc sizes. Get some today and have it on hand in case of pneumonia among your calves.

Don't forget to stock up on vaccine for your calves. We carry both the double and the triple bacterins—and at reasonable prices. Our vaccines and other products requiring it are kept under constant refrigeration to assure maximum potency when used.

For all your veterinary needs, come to DEVOY REXALL DRUG.

PRESCRIPTIONS
The next time your doctor gives you a prescription take it to DEVOY REXALL DRUG to be filled by a prescription specialist. At DEVOY'S there is a registered pharmacist on duty evenings for your convenience.
