

ACP-NEBRASKA

Mr. Ressel, Chairman of the Holt county ASC committee said today that questions frequently arise concerning a comparison of the expenditure of Federal ACP cost-sharing funds between various types of practices. The following (above) chart portrays the expenditure for various types of practices for each of the last five years. "You will note," says Mr. Ressel, "that a very high percentage of the total net assistance has been spent for conservation practices which return long-range benefits. For example, from 32.5 to 40 percent of the total assistance was spent for mechanical practices such as erosion control dams, terraces, diversions, drainage practices, etc.; from 7.5
