

A Poem

From Mrs. Eby . . .

Answer My Soul
When I see the wounds in His nail torn hands, and know they were pierced for me; When I see the love-look in His eyes that wept in Gethsamane; When I view the thorns on His Kingly head, that Calvary's victory won,
And then shall my heart with anguish break o'er the little that I have done.
Will He answer me in that day of days when I seek on His right to stand, Have Ye sought my sheep on the desert bare, with a tender rescuing hand?
Can I show Him then one scar of pain that I wear for His dear name?
Can I there unfold to His Shepherd gaze one single bleeding lamb?
Shall I fall at His feet, His bruised feet and plead as I've often done here,
I had no time to seek Thy sheep afar on the desert drear; My hours were full, "I could not go" while I have with remorseful full tears those feet That trod the pain-strewn way to save me from death's strong fears?

Can I bear it when He takes the crown that was woven in love for me And places it on a comrade's head blood stained from calvary?
Can I bear it, soul, when I hear the groans of the heathen in their woe,
And know they are perishing for bread I withheld from them before?
Can I bear it, Oh to be turned away in sight of the gates of gold, My Saviors face no more to see and barred from the Shepherd's fold?
Dear Christ, I fall at thy blood-stained cross—Oh! nail me there I pray;
For These I will search the utmost wilds and return with Thy lambs astray!

NOW LOOK WHAT CORVAIR'S GONE AND DONE!

The same Corvair that tallied a thumping 27.03 miles per gallon* in the Mobilgas Economy Run . . . went right on to climb Pikes Peak earlier in the spring than any car has ever tried!

We wanted to show you what the fabulous traction of Corvair's rear-engine design and the sure-footedness of four-wheel independent suspension really mean. So the identical Economy Run car went right on to 14,110-foot Pikes Peak—and right up to the top of that savage mountain, on April 15, still deep in winter's snow and ice. No other car—even specially equipped—had ever been able to conquer that nightmare alpine road so early in the spring. But Corvair (with United States Auto Club officials aboard to certify that not one nut or bolt was changed) purred right to the summit without chains or even snow tires! That just underscores the fact that Corvair is totally unique. But you'll find that out the first five minutes you're at the wheel!

*with professional economy drivers on the over 2,000-mile run from Los Angeles to Minneapolis
