Mr. and Mrs. Billy M. Cox . . . married at Chambers

Kathleen Kay Tangeman Weds Billy Mac Cox At Chambers Thursday

The Methodist church in Chambers was the scene of the wedding of Miss Kathleen Kay Tangeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Tangeman and Mr. Billy Mac Cox, son of Rev. and Mrs. Charles F. Cox, Thursday, June 2. Rev. Cox, father of the groom and pastor of the Chambers and Amelia Methodist churches officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with large bouquets of spring flowers.

The traditional wedding marches and prelude music were played by Miss Sharon Squire of Elgin. Leslie Bennett, also of Elgin sang, "Because" and "God Give Me You." Miss Squire played the Lord's Prayer following the taking of the vows. The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of French lace and nylon tulle. The slim line bodice featured short sleeves and tapered gaunlets. Hand clipped lace framed the V neckline. The full gathered ballerina skirt, in redingote style, was enhanced with hand clipped scooped lace and worn over a skirt of tulle ruffles. Her veil of double illusion was caught by a lace cap trimmed with pearls and rhinestones. Her only jewelry was a pearl pendant with a bouquet of pink sweet-heart roses with streamers on a white Bible. Mrs. Jerald McCrehan of Chambers, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Marilyn Mignery of Elgin, and Marilyn Davis of Ewing, friends of the bride. They wore ballerina gowns with bodices of lace and full gathered skirts of nylon organza over taffeta. They wore white net veils gathered on pink headbands. Their bouquets were tinted white carnations with pink daisies. The groom was attired in a dark business suit and wore a pink rose boutonniere taken from the brides' bouquet. Charles Cox, jr., of Ord, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Groomsman were Robert Harris of Ericson and Melvin Lowery of Burwell, friends of the groom. All wore business suits with white carnation boutonnieres. Richard Read of Chambers and Francis Heunesser of Ewing, friends of the groom, were ushers.

The mothers of the bride and groom wore navy dresses with white and beige accessories and each wore a white carnation corsage. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors for the 134 wedding guests. A three tier wedding cake decorated with pink roses and white bells topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the buffet table. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Richard Read. Miss Judy Beed and Miss Ruth Smith of Chambers poured coffee. Miss Daniela Whitaker of Chambers had charge of the guest book. Miss Beverly Bartak and Miss Sheila Hertel of Ewing recorded the gifts. Ten ladies of the Women's Society of Christian Service helped with the refreshments. Flower arrangements were prepared by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Herman Holcomb of Chambers.

The bride is a 1960 graduate of the Wheeler County high school at Bartlett. The groom is a 1954 graduate of the Ericson high school. He served four years in the air force and spent three years overseas in Germany. After a short wedding trip to the Black Hills, they will be at home in O'Neill at 705 East Douglas.
