Miss Charline Boyle Married Monday to Clark Gaughenbaugh

St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill was the setting for the wedding of Miss Charline Boyle of O'Neill and Clark Gaughenbaugh of Inman. Mgr. Timothy O'Sullivan performed the double ring ceremony in a 10 a.m. service Monday.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boyle of O'Neill and the bridegroom's parents are Mrs. and Mrs. Woodrow Gaughenbaugh of Inman.

Miss Helen Boyle and Miss Alice Schaffer sang, "On This Day" and "Panis Angelicus" accompanied by Mrs. John McCarville, organist.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, appeared in a waltz length gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The sleeves came to the wrists. The bride's finger tip veil was attached to a half-hat trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of a white orchid and carnations on a white prayer book.

The maid of honor was Rita Boyle, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Theresa Boyle of O'Neill, sister of the bride, and Carol Gaughenbaugh of Inman, sister of the bridegroom. They wore white organdy and satin street-length dresses with blue accessories. They carried bouquets of mixed flowers.

The best man was John Janzing of O'Neill. Groomsmen were Dick Appleby and Harry Sobotka of Inman. Ushers were Harold Parks of Ewing, Tom Cunningham and Albert Kopejka of Inman.

The couple will live in O'Neill following a wedding trip to the Black Hills.

Karen Lee Scott Willis J. Berry Exchange Vows

Miss Karen Lee Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Scott of Valparaiso and Willis James Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Berry of Stuart were married in a Sunday afternoon ceremony at St. James Methodist church in Lincoln.

Rev. Lloyd J. Bliss officiated at the service. The church was decorated with altar bouquets of pink and white carnations accented with sprays of greenery.

Roger Henrichsen sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because," Mrs. F. Gail Adams was the organist.

The bride wore a gown fashioned of nylon organza and clipped Chantilly lace over taffeta in traditional white. A Sabrina-necked lace yoke and tiny sleeves contoured the taut organza bodice marked at the elongated waistline with narrow scallop lace detail. A voluminous organza skirt featured triple appliques of scallop lace detailing running horizontally to meet at the back where the hemline brushed the floor. Her shoulder-length veil of French illusion was caught to a lace crown trimmed with pearls. She carried a cascade arrangement of baby pink roses and lily of the valley.

Miss Marla Rae Scott, sister of the bride, Valparaiso, was maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Mrs. Worth Dixon Howard, Lincoln. They wore gowns of nylon chiffon over taffeta in petal pink. A Sabrina neckline and brief shoulder covering contoured the taut basque bowing itself at the back high above the street length hem of the theoplane-necked draped skirt. Their bouquets were crescent arrangements of American Beauty roses. The headpieces of crown tiaras in petal pink were accented with seed pearls.

Richard White, Lincoln, was the best man. The groomsmen were James Hamik, Lincoln. Ushers were Rolfe Kunz, Stuart and Vernon Scott, Valparaiso.

The flower girl was Marcia Johnson of Ceresco. The ringbearer was Paul Yarges of Omaha.

A dessert luncheon followed the ceremony in the church parlors.

The bride is a graduate of St. Elizabeth Hospital School of Nursing at Lincoln. The bridegroom attended Wayne State Teachers college and is a graduate of the University of Nebraska. He is employed by the Farm Credit Bank.

After a short wedding trip to Lake Okoboji, Ia., the couple will reside at 2707 North 56th St., Omaha.

Janice Scholz Jack Osborne Wed Saturday

Miss Janice Scholz of Stuart became the bride of Jack Osborne of Atkinson in a ceremony at St. Boniface Catholic church in Stuart at 10:30 Saturday morning, May 28. The Rev. A. J. Paschang officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Florian Scholz, Stuart. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Osborne, Atkinson.

Jim Hytrik of Stuart sang accompanied by Sister Vera at the organ.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, appeared in a gown of re-embroidered Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over silk taffeta. The molded bodice was embroidered in seed pearls and iridescent sequins with a scalloped Sabrina neckline and bridal sleeves. The bouffant skirt, worn over stiffened petticoats, was styled with alternate tiers of lace and tulle. She carried two orchids on a white prayer book.

The maid of honor was Joyce Scholz of Stuart, sister of the bride. She wore a turquoise silk organza over taffeta and net with a white lace picture hat and white shoes. Her bouquet was white gladioli on a lace fan.

Miss Mary Devine of Oconto, a friend of the bride, and Miss Marilyn Wallinger, cousin of the bride, of Omaha were bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical to the maid of honor. They wore turquoise picture hats and shoes.

The best man was Marvin Scholz, brother of the bride. Groomsmen were Jerry Taylor, a friend and Dale Osborne, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Bill Raymer, Mike Wallinger and Glen Lockman.

The ringbearer was Tommy Scholz, brother of the bride.

A dinner for the bridal party was held at noon at the Stuart auditorium. The reception for 200 guests followed at 2 p.m. The wedding cake was decorated by the bride's cousin, Mrs. Mike Cody.

Miss Donna Wallinger was in charge of the guest book. Miss Janice Lockman and Miss Joyce Tielke assisted at the gift table.

The bride is a graduate of the Stuart high school and attended Wayne State Teacher's college. She taught school at Districts 213 and 205. The bridegroom graduated from Atkinson high school and served in the U. S. Army for two years with 18 months in Germany. He is employed at Dankert's service in O'Neill.

Following a short wedding trip to Colorado the couple will be at home at 1746 Washington, Lincoln.
