

| THE WEATHER  |    |    |
|--------------|----|----|
| DATE         | hi | lo |
| Thursday 16  | 70 | 50 |
| Friday 17    | 80 | 46 |
| Saturday 18  | 81 | 58 |
| Sunday 19    | 83 | 57 |
| Monday 20    | 87 | 60 |
| Tuesday 21   | 87 | 54 |
| Wednesday 22 | 83 | 49 |

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hubbard . . . wed 50 years

H. W. Hubbards Feted On Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hubbard observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary with an open house at their home in Chambers Sunday, June 19 from 2 to 5 p.m.

Over 100 guests signed the guest book. A large bouquet of gold chrysanthemums were presented by the brothers and sisters.

Assisting in various ways were friends of their younger days, Mrs. Hattie Tibbets, Mrs. G. H. Grimes, Mrs. James Grimes, Mrs. Gladys Oxford and Mrs. Herman Holcomb. Mrs. A. B. Hubbard, Mrs. Steve Shavlik and Mrs. C. W. Porter served cake and sandwiches. Mrs. Edwin Hubbard and Mrs. C. M. Eason poured coffee and served punch.

Hiram Hubbard and Loa Porter were married June 19, 1910 at the home of Mrs. Hubbard, was the Ed Porter in Chambers by Rev. William Green, pastor of the Methodist church. Only immediate members of the families were present. Chauncey Porter of O'Neill, brother of Mrs. Hubbard, was the only one present Sunday who attended the wedding fifty years ago.

The Hubbards have made their home at Chambers all their married life. The are the parents of one daughter, Mrs. C. M. (Zetha) Eason of O'Neill and one son, Edwin of Chambers. They have one grandson, Ricky Hubbard of Chambers.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huston of Sedro Woolley, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fleck, jr., of Loretta, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Adams of Atkinson and several from O'Neill.

Two Accidents Reported For O'Neill Region

Two accidents were investigated during the past week. On Sunday morning a car driven by Virgil E. Wilson, 17, of Mullen overturned one mile south, and one half mile west of Atkinson. He apparently lost control of the auto and it rolled into the north ditch. The machine was a total loss.

Donald F. Greig, 18, of Stuart, a passenger in the auto was taken to the Atkinson hospital with head injuries. His sister, Judy, 14, also of Stuart suffered a bruised shoulder and back injuries.

Another accident occurred west of Emmet on US 20 Sunday evening during the rain storm. A car driven by Douglas S. Cobb, 18, of Stuart collided with the rear end of a stock car being towed behind another car. Driver of the first auto was Donald B. Edwards, 21, of Spencer. Approximately $200 damage was done to the Cobb vehicle and only slight damage was done to the stock car.

The Willing Workers 4-H club of O'Neill won first prize in the annual rodeo parade with their entry in the non-profit division. A check for $75 was presented to the club by the O'Neill Lions club, who awarded some $200 in prizes to the top five floats.

A. G. Johnsons Hold Open House For Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Johnson of Stuart observed their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, June 19.

The celebration began with a family dinner at the city auditorium. The couple's attendants, Mrs. Rose Hovey and Mr. Cecil Radcliff, and Mrs. Elvera Smith who played the wedding march, were present for the observance.

An open house was held from 2 to 5 p.m. The three tier wedding cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Henry Stalaker of Naper. After the couple had cut the first piece of cake the oldest daughter, Mrs. Laurence Nagel cut and served the cake. Carolyn Van Every and Verna Fisher, granddaughters of the couple, were in charge of the gifts. Mrs. Fritz Korte registered the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Johnson spent thirty-six years of their married life on a farm five miles west of Stuart. The past fourteen years they have lived in Stuart. They have one son, Raymond and five daughters: Bertha, Fern, Mildred, Ethel and Delores, twelve grandchildren and twenty great grandchildren.

Ten Inch Rain Hits Community

Ewing—Rainfall in the Ewing community was recorded in various amounts Sunday evening ranging from an inch and one half to up to 10 inches. Strong winds and hail accompanied the rain in some spots.

Nearly all small streams were running bankfull with some overflow in the low places. One bridge on Cache Creek was washed out and damage was done to roads in other places.

Steve, 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wood of Lincoln and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Copes of Page, is going into his fourth week of unconsciousness, following a concussion suffered in a bicycle accident within the school zone when a car driven by one of the school mothers struck his bicycle and threw him onto the curb. The accident occurred May 31.

The Wood family are former O'Neill and Preece residents. Steve has two sisters, Barbara and Christie and a brother, Mike.

Awarded Certificates

Newt Mullendore and Neil Harshfield have been awarded special certificates of merit by the Winona School of Photography.

Willing Workers Named Winners Of $75 Prize

The annual O'Neill Rodeo parade was held Friday with $200 in prizes for non-profit organizations. A traveling trophy was awarded to the M & M Bakery for the best commercial entry.

The Willing Worker's 4-H club of O'Neill won the first prize of $75. Second prize of $50 went to the O'Neill Cub Scouts. $25 for each of the next three winners went to the Red Bird Lucky Clover 4-H club, third prize; Grattan 4-H, fourth prize and the O'Neill Happy Helpers 4-H club, fifth prize.

The O'Neill Chamber of Commerce furnished the prizes and the O'Neill Lion's Club sponsored the parade and the trophy. The trophy will be awarded permanently to the commercial firm winning it three times.

O'Neill's mayor Dewey Schaffer and Leigh Reynolds, president of the O'Neill Rodeo association led the parade on horseback.

Also participating in the parade were the American Legion Simonson post 93 colors, the O'Neill band, rodeo and miscellaneous riders and army recruiters. Other entries in the parade were the Town House, Standard Station, Devoy's Rexall drug, Gambles, R.E.A. Pinkertman's TV, Boat club, K & M Cafe, Bartlett 4-H riders, Coast to Coast, J. M. McDonald, Kansas-Nebraska Natural Gas, Safeway, Ben Franklin, New Outlaw, Veterans of Foreign Wars and A. Marcelus Chevrolet. Other parade pictures will be found on another page of this week's issue of the Frontier.

Stolen Car Reported

A 1955 President hardtop Studebaker was stolen in O'Neill sometime late Monday night. The owner of the car is Fred Heerman, who says the car disappeared without a trace. The auto is two-tone with a pima red bottom and a black top. The license number is 36-2701.

Langston Gets 2-3 Years For Hog Stealing

Charles Langston was sentenced to from 2-3 years in the men's reformatory Tuesday morning after pleading guilty to hog stealing. District Judge D. R. Mounts sentenced Langston.

Carl Curtis To Speak at Dinner

Senator Carl T. Curtis will be the featured speaker at the Holt County Republican Appreciation fund raising dinner on July 21 according to J. G. Brewster, Stuart, chairman of the Holt County Republicans. Charles Thone, Lincoln, State Republican chairman, will accompany Senator Curtis.

Joins Shorthorn Assn.

Jeanette Clemens, Amelia, has been awarded a junior membership in the American Shorthorn Association, the oldest purebred livestock organization in America.

Bobby Krutz Fund Started at Orchard

Just two weeks ago little Bobby Krutz, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Krutz of Orchard, lost his left leg in a tractor-powered mower accident.

Bobby is home now from the Tilden hospital and getting along as well as can be expected. However a long period of convalescence and an even longer period of becoming adjusted to his handicap await the little boy.

A fund has been established for Bobby Krutz, and anyone interested in giving to the Bobby Krutz fund may leave their contributions at the Bank of Orchard or at Drayton's Elevator.

Walters Funeral Held Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. John Walter, 68, were conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the United Presbyterian church in Ewing with pastor Dr. W. H. Ross conducting the service. Interment was in the Ewing cemetery east of town.

The late Mary Daniels Walter was born January 13, 1892 at Clarkson a daughter of John Daniels and Mary Jensen Daniels.

On November 12, 1912 she married John Walter at St. John's Catholic church south of Ewing. The couple became the parents of five children. They spent their entire married life in the community.

Mrs. Walter died Saturday in St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha following a short illness.

Survivors include: Husband, John; son—Alvin of Grand Island; daughters—Mrs. William (Lavinia) Stamp of Inman, Gladys Walter, Avis Walter and Mrs. Dean Lichty, all of Omaha; sister—Mrs. C. D. Walter of Chambers; brother—Gus Daniels of Clearwater and seven grandchildren.

Pete Heriford accepts the Lions Club trophy from President Ken Curran for the winning commercial float in the parade held last Friday in conjunction with the O'Neill Rodeo. Mr. Heriford represents the M and M Bakery and Cafe.

Bartlett Banker Sentenced To Penitentiary

Clifford O. Bishop, 62, former president of the Bartlett State Bank, was sentenced to four to six years in the penitentiary by District Judge William F. Manasil of Burwell.

Bishop was convicted May 28 of false entry and two counts of embezzlement in connection with irregularities in the operation of the now defunct bank, which closed in April of 1958.

He was sentenced to two years for the false entry charge and four to six years on each of the two counts of embezzlement, and also fined $10,000 on one embezzlement count, $5,000 on the second and ordered to pay the costs of the suit. The sentences will run concurrently.

Defense Attorney Merle McDermott of Grand Island said the case will be appealed. Appeal bond was set at $10,000.

A preliminary hearing was also held before Judge Manasil for Bishop, Walter Plugge and Walter Lee Plugge, directors of the bank on charges of conspiring to defraud. The Plugges are father and son.

Darlene Johnson Home After Fall From Horse

Miss Darlene Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Johnson who live north of O'Neill, returned home Sunday from the O'Neill hospital.

Miss Johnson and her cousin, Betty Bausch, were both thrown from a horse while riding in a pasture at the Johnson place last Wednesday. She was knocked unconscious and had cuts on the left side of her face.

Miss Bausch also had facial bruises. The two girls wandered more than a mile in a severe storm that hit the area that night but finally got home. They were then taken to St. Anthony's hospital.

Sterling Bowers Named All-Around Cowboy

One hundred cowboys and cowgirls competed in the O'Neill rodeo Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Sterling Bowers of Burwell was named the all around cowboy. Cowboys from Kansas, Nebraska, Arizona and South Dakota participated.

Champion bare back rider was Dean Kinney of Ainsworth.

Other champions were Howard Parker, Gordon, saddle bronc; Elver Lord, Valentine, calf roping; Monte Elam, Brookville, Kan., steer wrestling; Byron Johnson, Brahma bull and Danni Whitaker, Chambers, ladies barrel racing.

First place winners: Bare Back: first go round, Tuffy Barent; second go round, Jim Veboda. Saddle Bronc: first go round, Howard Parker; second go round, Orville Gallins; third go round, Howard Parker. Calf roping: first go round, Monte Elam; second go round, Elver Lord. Steer wrestling: first go round, Monte Elam; second go round, Sterling Bower. Brahma Bulls: first go round, Byron Johnson; second go round, Ronnie Cole. Ladies Barrel racing: first go round, Danni Whitaker; second go round, Monty Sorenson.

Gambling Devices, Liquor Seized In Ewing Legion Club Raid Tuesday

Reed Nelson, inspector for the State Liquor Commission is shown here with evidence obtained from the Ewing Legion Club Tuesday evening after a search warrant was issued by County Judge Louis Reimer. Three pinball machines, two punchboards, lottery tickets, playing cards and a quantity of liquor were seized. Nelson and Deputy Sheriff, Jim Mullin made the search.

Bartlett Banker Sentenced To Penitentiary

Clifford O. Bishop, 62, former president of the Bartlett State Bank, was sentenced to four to six years in the penitentiary by District Judge William F. Manasil of Burwell.

Bishop was convicted May 28 of false entry and two counts of embezzlement in connection with irregularities in the operation of the now defunct bank, which closed in April of 1958.

He was sentenced to two years for the false entry charge and four to six years on each of the two counts of embezzlement, and also fined $10,000 on one embezzlement count, $5,000 on the second and ordered to pay the costs of the suit. The sentences will run concurrently.

Defense Attorney Merle McDermott of Grand Island said the case will be appealed. Appeal bond was set at $10,000.

A preliminary hearing was also held before Judge Manasil for Bishop, Walter Plugge and Walter Lee Plugge, directors of the bank on charges of conspiring to defraud. The Plugges are father and son.

Darlene Johnson Home After Fall From Horse

Miss Darlene Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Johnson who live north of O'Neill, returned home Sunday from the O'Neill hospital.

Miss Johnson and her cousin, Betty Bausch, were both thrown from a horse while riding in a pasture at the Johnson place last Wednesday. She was knocked unconscious and had cuts on the left side of her face.

Miss Bausch also had facial bruises. The two girls wandered more than a mile in a severe storm that hit the area that night but finally got home. They were then taken to St. Anthony's hospital.

Joins Shorthorn Assn.

Jeanette Clemens, Amelia, has been awarded a junior membership in the American Shorthorn Association, the oldest purebred livestock organization in America.

Sterling Bowers Named All-Around Cowboy

One hundred cowboys and cowgirls competed in the O'Neill rodeo Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Sterling Bowers of Burwell was named the all around cowboy. Cowboys from Kansas, Nebraska, Arizona and South Dakota participated.

Champion bare back rider was Dean Kinney of Ainsworth.

Other champions were Howard Parker, Gordon, saddle bronc; Elver Lord, Valentine, calf roping; Monte Elam, Brookville, Kan., steer wrestling; Byron Johnson, Brahma bull and Danni Whitaker, Chambers, ladies barrel racing.

First place winners: Bare Back: first go round, Tuffy Barent; second go round, Jim Veboda. Saddle Bronc: first go round, Howard Parker; second go round, Orville Gallins; third go round, Howard Parker. Calf roping: first go round, Monte Elam; second go round, Elver Lord. Steer wrestling: first go round, Monte Elam; second go round, Sterling Bower. Brahma Bulls: first go round, Byron Johnson; second go round, Ronnie Cole. Ladies Barrel racing: first go round, Danni Whitaker; second go round, Monty Sorenson.

Bartons to Celebrate Golden Wedding Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Barton of Creighton will observe their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday, June 26, at the Creighton municipal auditorium. They are former residents of Antelope county and of the Royal vicinity.

Funeral Services For W. C. Bowden Held Saturday

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2:00 p.m. at the Biglin Chapel for William Clyde Bowden who died of a lingering illness at St. Anthony's hospital June 15. Rev. Glenn Kennicott, pastor of the O'Neill Methodist church, officiated. Burial was in Prospect Hill cemetery.

Pall bearers were: John Watson, Ben Grady, Archie Bright, Dale French, Woodrow Melena and George Janousek.

Mrs. Grant Peacock was soloist. She sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere".

Darlene Johnson Home After Fall From Horse

Miss Darlene Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Johnson who live north of O'Neill, returned home Sunday from the O'Neill hospital.

Miss Johnson and her cousin, Betty Bausch, were both thrown from a horse while riding in a pasture at the Johnson place last Wednesday. She was knocked unconscious and had cuts on the left side of her face.

Miss Bausch also had facial bruises. The two girls wandered more than a mile in a severe storm that hit the area that night but finally got home. They were then taken to St. Anthony's hospital.

Joins Shorthorn Assn.

Jeanette Clemens, Amelia, has been awarded a junior membership in the American Shorthorn Association, the oldest purebred livestock organization in America.

Sterling Bowers Named All-Around Cowboy

One hundred cowboys and cowgirls competed in the O'Neill rodeo Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Sterling Bowers of Burwell was named the all around cowboy. Cowboys from Kansas, Nebraska, Arizona and South Dakota participated.

Champion bare back rider was Dean Kinney of Ainsworth.

Other champions were Howard Parker, Gordon, saddle bronc; Elver Lord, Valentine, calf roping; Monte Elam, Brookville, Kan., steer wrestling; Byron Johnson, Brahma bull and Danni Whitaker, Chambers, ladies barrel racing.

First place winners: Bare Back: first go round, Tuffy Barent; second go round, Jim Veboda. Saddle Bronc: first go round, Howard Parker; second go round, Orville Gallins; third go round, Howard Parker. Calf roping: first go round, Monte Elam; second go round, Elver Lord. Steer wrestling: first go round, Monte Elam; second go round, Sterling Bower. Brahma Bulls: first go round, Byron Johnson; second go round, Ronnie Cole. Ladies Barrel racing: first go round, Danni Whitaker; second go round, Monty Sorenson.

Fred Marconit, Beats Don Bridge In Tournament

Championship flight: Fred Marconit, Norfolk, winner; Don Bridge, Norfolk, runner up; and A. J. Jaskowski, O'Neill, consolation.

First flight: Tom Liddy, O'Neill, winner; Jim Snyder, Ainsworth, runner up and Bob Huston, Bassett, consolation.

Second flight: Jim Clifton, Orchard, winner; Wayne Marcellus, Bassett, runner up and Marvin Johnson, O'Neill, consolation.

Third flight: Ried Snover, Ainsworth, winner; Verne Reynolds, O'Neill, runner up and Bob Kurtz, O'Neill, consolation.

Fourth flight: Don Godel, Winner, S. D., winner; Oscar Krohn, Neligh, runner up, and Bud Miller, Orchard, consolation.

Fifth flight: Bill Nelson, O'Neill, winner; Fred Appleby, O'Neill, runner up and Gary Gillespie, consolation.

Sixth flight: Glenn Butler, Bassett, winner; Mike Hammond, O'Neill, runner up and Mike Champion, O'Neill, consolation.

Methodists List Pastoral Changes

The Methodist listing of pastoral changes in the Northeast district as made at the annual conference have been announced by interim Bishop Ivan Lee Holt as follows:

Mrs. Charlotte Dillon, Dixon-Cole-ridge; Rev. Robert D. Lander, Pate-Inman; Darrell Keck, Pender; Thurston; Rev. C. Edwin Anderson, Randolph-McLean; V. R. Daniels, Spencer-Bristow; Rev. John Minert, Wausa-Magnet and Robert Brenning, Wynot-Maskell.

By common consent and special arrangement, Rev. Duane Lenz, pastor of the Evangelical Union Brethren church at Orchard will be pastor for the Methodist church at Royal.

Table Given

A new picnic table was made and presented to the city park by the O'Neill Odd Fellows Lodge last week.

Fred Marconit and Don Bridge, both of Norfolk, walk off with top honors in the annual Dad's Day golf tournament at the O'Neill Country Club Monday. Marconit won the championship flight and Don Bridge was runner up. A. P. Jaskowski was consolation winner.

The O'Neill Country Club Monday. Marconit won the championship flight and Don Bridge was runner up. A. P. Jaskowski was consolation winner.

State liquor commission inspector Reed Nelson and Deputy Sheriff James Mullen raided the Ewing American Legion club Tuesday night.

Three slot machines, two punch boards, a jar of lottery tickets, cards and poker chips were confiscated along with the beer, whiskey and other alcoholic liquor found on the premises.

Jake Butler, the club manager, was arrested and held on three counts in Holt County court Wednesday afternoon. He entered a plea of guilty to each charge.

Mr. Nelson charged Butler with unlawful sale of alcoholic liquor without first obtaining a license. Holt County attorney, William W. Griffin, filed two charges of procuring liquor for two minors and maintaining gaming devices as a common gambler.

The minors who pled guilty in court Wednesday to possession of alcoholic liquor were Ronald I. Thoenel, 18, and Frank I. Thoenel, 16. They admitted getting the beer in the club when they entered to buy fireworks. Ronald was fined $40 and $4 court costs and Frank was fined $25 and $4 costs.

Butler paid $150 for maintaining the gaming devices, $100 for procuring the liquor for the Thoenel boys and $50 for unlawful sale without a license for a total of $300 and $12 court costs.

William W. Griffin also filed a complaint in Holt County court Wednesday afternoon against E. E. Cleveland, jr., for assisting and permitting Jake Butler and other persons whose names are unknown, to keep and exhibit gaming devices and an establishment and apparatus to win and gain money and other property of value, to wit: three slot machines.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 30 cents. After receiving his change and the beer he asked to see the operating license. Butler was unable to produce one. He also observed the two minors drinking. He returned to O'Neill for a warrant and he returned to the club with Mr. Mullen and at that time they searched the club and took the evidence into possession.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 30 cents. After receiving his change and the beer he asked to see the operating license. Butler was unable to produce one. He also observed the two minors drinking. He returned to O'Neill for a warrant and he returned to the club with Mr. Mullen and at that time they searched the club and took the evidence into possession.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 30 cents. After receiving his change and the beer he asked to see the operating license. Butler was unable to produce one. He also observed the two minors drinking. He returned to O'Neill for a warrant and he returned to the club with Mr. Mullen and at that time they searched the club and took the evidence into possession.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 30 cents. After receiving his change and the beer he asked to see the operating license. Butler was unable to produce one. He also observed the two minors drinking. He returned to O'Neill for a warrant and he returned to the club with Mr. Mullen and at that time they searched the club and took the evidence into possession.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 30 cents. After receiving his change and the beer he asked to see the operating license. Butler was unable to produce one. He also observed the two minors drinking. He returned to O'Neill for a warrant and he returned to the club with Mr. Mullen and at that time they searched the club and took the evidence into possession.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 30 cents. After receiving his change and the beer he asked to see the operating license. Butler was unable to produce one. He also observed the two minors drinking. He returned to O'Neill for a warrant and he returned to the club with Mr. Mullen and at that time they searched the club and took the evidence into possession.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 30 cents. After receiving his change and the beer he asked to see the operating license. Butler was unable to produce one. He also observed the two minors drinking. He returned to O'Neill for a warrant and he returned to the club with Mr. Mullen and at that time they searched the club and took the evidence into possession.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 30 cents. After receiving his change and the beer he asked to see the operating license. Butler was unable to produce one. He also observed the two minors drinking. He returned to O'Neill for a warrant and he returned to the club with Mr. Mullen and at that time they searched the club and took the evidence into possession.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 30 cents. After receiving his change and the beer he asked to see the operating license. Butler was unable to produce one. He also observed the two minors drinking. He returned to O'Neill for a warrant and he returned to the club with Mr. Mullen and at that time they searched the club and took the evidence into possession.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 30 cents. After receiving his change and the beer he asked to see the operating license. Butler was unable to produce one. He also observed the two minors drinking. He returned to O'Neill for a warrant and he returned to the club with Mr. Mullen and at that time they searched the club and took the evidence into possession.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 30 cents. After receiving his change and the beer he asked to see the operating license. Butler was unable to produce one. He also observed the two minors drinking. He returned to O'Neill for a warrant and he returned to the club with Mr. Mullen and at that time they searched the club and took the evidence into possession.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 30 cents. After receiving his change and the beer he asked to see the operating license. Butler was unable to produce one. He also observed the two minors drinking. He returned to O'Neill for a warrant and he returned to the club with Mr. Mullen and at that time they searched the club and took the evidence into possession.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 30 cents. After receiving his change and the beer he asked to see the operating license. Butler was unable to produce one. He also observed the two minors drinking. He returned to O'Neill for a warrant and he returned to the club with Mr. Mullen and at that time they searched the club and took the evidence into possession.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 30 cents. After receiving his change and the beer he asked to see the operating license. Butler was unable to produce one. He also observed the two minors drinking. He returned to O'Neill for a warrant and he returned to the club with Mr. Mullen and at that time they searched the club and took the evidence into possession.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 30 cents. After receiving his change and the beer he asked to see the operating license. Butler was unable to produce one. He also observed the two minors drinking. He returned to O'Neill for a warrant and he returned to the club with Mr. Mullen and at that time they searched the club and took the evidence into possession.

The evidence of the raid was stored in the office of Holt County Sheriff Lee Hamrick Wednesday afternoon. Nelson stated he had entered the club early Tuesday evening and purchased a bottle of beer for 3