

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ries

Kay Butterfield Weds Robert Ries At Atkinson Church

Miss Kay Butterfield of Atkinson and Robert Ries of Wood Lake were united in marriage Saturday, June 11 at St. Joseph's Catholic church at Atkinson. Rev. Richard Parr performed the 10 a. m. nuptial mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Butterfield, sr., of Atkinson are the parents of the bride. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ries of Wood Lake.

A men's choir from the seminary at Conception, Mo., sang, "Ave Maria," "On This Day," and "Our Father." Miss Marge Ries of Atkinson was the organist. The church was decorated with bouquets of white and orchid gladioli.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown fashioned of tulle and lace. The sweetheart neckline was edged in seed pearls and iridescents. The fitted bodice featured long tapered sleeves. Alternating tiers of lace and tulle enhanced the front of the bouffant floor length skirt.

The waist length veil of imported illusion was caught in a crown of pearl loops. The loops were designed in seven points and were accented with crystal beads and rhinestones. She carried an orchid and scapularis arrangement and a white prayer book.

Miss Edith Pokorny of Atkinson was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Don Butterfield of Atkinson, a sister-in-law of the bride, Miss Julie Berner of Norfolk and Miss JoAnn Ries of Wood Lake. They wore identical floor length gowns of orchid lace and net over taffeta. They carried colonial bouquets of white gladioli.

Jack Ries of Omaha was the best man. Groomsman were Don Butterfield, Jim Gilg and Ken Butterfield, all of Atkinson. Floyd Butterfield, jr., of Ewing and Ray Schaffer of Dubois, Wyo., were the ushers. The men wore white dinner jackets and black trousers.

Tari Butterfield and Mary Alice Winkler were flower girls. They wore white satin floor length dresses trimmed with orchid. Both carried baskets of red roses. The ring bearer was Jim Shald.

The mother of the bride wore a beige dress with bone accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a brown dress with beige accessories. Each wore a white carnation corsage.

A dinner was served following the ceremony at the Knights of Columbus hall. A reception was held at 2 p. m. Mrs. Donald De Groff of Atkinson and Mrs. Walter Ries, jr., of Ainsworth poured. Mrs. Floyd Butterfield, jr., of Ewing cut the cake. Mrs. Homer Ernst of Emmet baked and decorated the wedding cake. Misses Sharon Braun and Helen Shilhan of Lincoln were in charge of the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of the Atkinson high school and the National Business college of Lincoln. The bridegroom graduated from St. Joseph's high school. He is engaged in ranching.

Following a trip to Colorado the couple will be at home on the Ries ranch south of Wood Lake.
