West O'Neill Collects Three Over Week

O'Neill Little Leaguers proved too much for other Elkhorn Valley teams over the week as West O'Neill added three wins and East O'Neill took one.

The three West wins gave the team an unprecedented record of 13 straight wins. The East win was by the largest number of runs produced in a little league game, 31-4 over Orchard.

Russ Johnson hit a home run for West O'Neill in their first victory of the week over Page, 6-1. Siedler had 2 for 2 in the game. The winning pitcher was T. Oshynski, the loser was Wettlaufer.

Bob Riley pitched one hit ball to stop Emmet 7-1 in the next game for West O'Neill. Steve Fox was the loser giving up 9 hits. Troshynski smashed a homer for the O'Neill team and Brockman got Emmet's only hit, a homer.

In the final game of the week, West collected 16 hits in a 20-5 victory over Stuart. Wayne Sinclair, the winning pitcher, gave up only 1 hit in the victory. Sillers was the losing pitcher. Murphy was Stuart's only hitter while the entire West team collected at least one hit each.

East O'Neill power proved too much for Orchard in their only game of the week as they stopped Orchard 31-4.

Midgets Win Three During Week; Prep For Tourney

The O'Neill Midget baseball racked up three victories during the week to offset the one defeat suffered at the hands of Orchard Sunday in a doubleheader.

Last Wednesday the Midgets stopped Ainsworth Legion team 11-9 on 10 hits and one error. Ainsworth collected 9 hits but committed 4 errors.

The winning pitcher at Ainsworth was Belina. Knepper knocked out 3 hits for 4 trips to the plate for the O'Neill team. Hill and Owen Donohoe collected 2 for 4 and both Hill and Belina doubled in the game.

Friday night Keith Reynoldson notched 13 strike outs, allowed only 5 hits and walked only one as he led the Midgets to a 14-1 victory over the Burke, S. D. team. Reynoldson also drove in two runs with a timely hit. Kurtz hit 3 for 5 and Brewster had a 2 for 4 record. Doubles in the game were hit by Kurtz, Hill, Knepper, Donohoe and Tomjack.

In Sunday's double header with Orchard Reynoldson again led his team to victory in the first game 12-7 giving up only 6 hits. The O'Neill team collected 9 hits and committed only 1 error while Orchard was charged with 4.

Richard Bruce was the loser for Orchard. Kurtz hit 2 for 5 and Hammond collected 2 hits for his 4 trips to the plate. Knepper and Hill again had doubles.

In the second game Orchard capitalized on 4 errors and scored 4 easy runs to defeat the O'Neill team 4-0. Mike Goetter was the winner. Rich Hill was the loser. Kurtz, Knepper and Keith Reynoldson got the only three hits for the O'Neill Midgets.

The Midgets, according to coach Joe Ollendick, are preparing for the big game Monday at Wausa against Pierce in the midget tournament. Ollendick said that the midgets would sure like to win that tournament to qualify for the regional playoffs scheduled for O'Neill later in the season.

Other games scheduled for the Midgets are as follows: Thursday (tonight) at Stuart against the Junior Legion and Friday (tomorrow night) at Neligh.
