

Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Boyle . . . married Saturday
O'NEILL PHOTO CO.

O'Neill Couple At St. Patrick's

St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill was the scene Saturday, July 16, for the wedding of Miss Irma Juracek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Juracek of O'Neill and Gayle Boyle, son of James P. Boyle of O'Neill. Rev. Robert Duffy officiated at the 10 a.m. double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with bouquets of pink gladioli and carnations.

Miss Alice Schaffer and Miss Jackie Arbutnot sang, "O Sanctissima" and "On This Day" accompanied by Mrs. John McCarville at the organ.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, appeared in a white gown of hand clipped rose point lace and mist tulle over taffeta. The slim sculptured bodice was styled with a scalloped neckline embellished with seed pearls and iridescent and brief sleeves.

The bouffant floor length skirt was accented by narrow bands of scalloped lace flowing down the skirt. Jewel encrusted appliques of lace were scattered over the skirt which extended into a chapel train.

The veil was fingertip length of imported silk illusion caught to a tiny cap of lace edged in pleated illusion and pearl and sequin embroidery. She carried a cascade arrangement of white and pink carnations centered with pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Dean Anderson of Lincoln, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a gown of lavender dotted nylon over taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Edgar Boyle, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. Lyle Juracek, brother of the bride, was the usher.

The mother of the bride chose a pink lace sheath dress with a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony a noon luncheon was held at the Town House.

The bride attended O'Neill High school and the bridegroom attended St. Mary's Academy.

After a short wedding trip the couple plan to make their home in O'Neill.
