

THE FRONTIER

THE WEATHER

DATE	hi	lo	prec.
Thursday 4	94	58
Friday 5	79	69
Saturday 6	89	60
Sunday 7	81	57
Monday 8	75	60	.23
Tuesday 9	76	50	.01
Wednesday 10	82	49

These girls were the top winners in the annual Holt County 4-H Style Show Saturday night. Shown here (left to right) are: Karen Farrier of Chambers; Kathryn Thiele of Clearwater; Marietta Perry of O'Neill, Doretta Butterfield and Faye Scheer of Ewing and Jolene Oldberding of Stuart.

Record Number of 4-H Contestants Compete in Holt County Style Show

The largest annual Holt county style show was held Thursday at the O'Neill high school auditorium in O'Neill with two hundred girls and one boy participating. This pre-fair activity included music and speech contests.

The top purple awards were: Doretta Butterfield of Ewing, Let's Sew; Kathryn Thiele of Clearwater, Skirt and Blouse; Faye Scheer of Ewing, School Clothes; Jolene Oldberding of Stuart, Lounging; Marietta Perry of O'Neill, Work and Play and Karen Farrier of Chambers, Dress Up.

Kathryn Thiele of Clearwater, Marietta Perry of O'Neill and Karen Farrier of Chambers will represent Holt county at the state fair. Theme for this year's activity was "Around the Clock." The show was narrated by Mrs. Wayne Smith of Chambers assisted by Connie Johnson of the O'Neill Happy Helpers. The script was prepared by Mrs. Clifford Sobotta of Inman. Ann Johnson and Marietta Perry of O'Neill supplied the background music. The ribbons were presented by Harry Petersen, president of the O'Neill Chamber of Commerce. Judges for the style show included Mrs. Ronald Gustafson, Helen Sire and Miss Prokop of Butte. Over 90% of the total enrollment in sewing activities of the county participated in the style revue.

Ribbons in the music contests were awarded as follows: music identification Blue, Marietta Perry of O'Neill, Red, Kathy Perry of O'Neill and White, Judy Beed of Chambers; song groups—Purple, Happy Helpers 4-H club of O'Neill; Blue, Cella 4-H club of Atkinson and Red, Jolly Ramblers 4-H club of Atkinson. Linda Bonenberger of Atkinson and Rita Vequist of O'Neill were awarded blue ribbons in the speech contest.

Judges for the music contest were Mrs. Howard Manson, Mrs. John Watson and Mrs. A. J. Snyder of O'Neill. The speech contest judges were Mrs. Wayne Smith of Chambers and Mr. Harry Ressel of O'Neill.

The pre-fair activity is sponsored by the O'Neill Chamber of Commerce and the Holt County Agricultural Society. Mrs. Catharine Indra, Holt county agent, was in charge. Blue ribbons were awarded to the following: Becky Beelaert, Cheri Sum-

Style Show— continued on page 8

Accident on South Fourth Street Results in Hit and Run Charge

Two accidents were reported to O'Neill police during the week. An accident occurred on south Fourth Street when a car driven by Earnest Howard of Page struck the rear of a parked car belonging to Evelyn Stannard, knocking the Stannard auto onto the sidewalk.

Howard left the scene of the accident but was later apprehended by State Patrolman Eugene Hastreiter. Howard was charged with hit and run and fined $20 and $4 costs and ordered to pay $33.85 restitution for damage to the Stannard auto.

An accident was reported at a private parking lot west of the New Outlaw store Saturday. A parked car belonging to Marie Shellhase of Atkinson was struck in the side by a car driven by William Hull. About $100 damage was estimated to the Shellhase auto.

William Hull appeared in justice court Monday and was fined on two counts, driving on the wrong side of the road and making a "U" turn.

O'Neill Airport Bid Too High; New Bids Aug. 26

One bid, that of the Missouri Valley Construction Co., was received by the Airport Authority board Tuesday morning for the proposed improvements at the O'Neill Airport. The bid was higher than the engineering estimates however and the work has been re-advertised with new bids to be opened August 26. The bid of the Kreuger-ITHE Company of Norfolk for the lighting was accepted subject to the securing of a satisfactory general contract bid. The Norfolk company's bid was $8,801.20. The complete legal notice for the bid appears on the want ad page of today's Frontier.

Hereford Association Plan Tour Aug. 18-19

The Nebraska Hereford Association will sponsor a tour August 18 and 19 through the heart of the sandhills. It will make fifteen stops at members spreads to view registered and commercial cattle.

The group will assemble at the Monahan Cattle Company ranch a mile north and two miles west of Whitman at 7 a.m. (MST). Cattlemen are welcome and urged to attend.

Benefit Planned Tonight For St. Patrick's Fund

A demonstration and lecture for the benefit of St. Patrick's building fund will be held tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m. at the St. Mary's assembly room.

The benefit, sponsored by St. Mary's alumni, will feature a discussion on personal grooming, figure analysis and discussion period by Margo R. Graham, the former Margaret Ryan, an alumni of St. Mary's.

Rites Scheduled For Frank Sokol, Knox Pioneer

VERDIGRE—Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at the ZCJB hall in Verdigre for Frank Sokol, 83, one of Knox county's pioneers. Rev. David T. Gustafson, pastor of the Methodist church will officiate and burial will be in ZCJB cemetery.

Mr. Sokol was born in Niobrara January 10, 1877. He was a long time member of the ZCJB lodge.

He died Monday, Aug. 8 in the Lundberg Memorial hospital at Creighton.

Survivors include his wife; two sons and three daughters; two brothers and one sister.

O'Neill Public School Schedule Set; Three Classes Have Two Sessions

Sixty-eighth Annual Holt County Fair Begins Monday at Chambers

It's fair time again in Holt County. The sixty-eighth annual Holt County Fair and Rodeo will open Monday and continue through Thursday at Chambers. There'll be parades, a rodeo, quarter horse show, a carnival and dancing, and of course an outstanding array of exhibits.

Monday will be entry day. Tuesday, judging day and Wednesday and Thursday will be entertainment days. Parades are scheduled on Wednesday and Thursday at 1 p.m. of all livestock entries, floats and other entries.

An RCA approved rodeo, produced by Fred Wolf of Fairfax, S. D. will be held Wednesday and Thursday evenings. A quarter horse show is slated for Thursday.

There'll be a big dance both Wednesday and Thursday evenings and a carnival will be on the grounds.

Children Clinic Scheduled For O'Neill Area

The next extension clinic to be held for crippled children of this area will be at the O'Neill Public School on Saturday, Aug. 20.

This clinic is to serve the counties of Antelope, Boyd, Brown, Cherry, Keya Paha, Knox, Rock and Wheeler in addition to Holt county. Registration begins at 7:30 a.m. and all registrations are to be completed by 10:30 a.m.

Examining specialists will be Dr. Dwight W. Burney, Orthopedist of Omaha and Dr. G. E. Robertson, Pediatrician of Omaha. Children who are not now receiving services under the program of Services for Crippled Children may be admitted to the clinic when referred by the family physician. Children already receiving treatment under the program will be seen for check-up and after-care services.

Cheryl Richter, 13, Dies After Fall From Horse

Funeral services were held Monday morning at St. Mary's Catholic church at Spencer for Cheryl Marie Richter, 13. Rev. Robert Steinhausen officiated at the 9 o'clock requiem mass. Burial was made in St. Mary's cemetery at Spencer under the direction of the Jones Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were LeRoy Scheltnost, Marvin and Max Lamman, Paul Chohri, Gary Schmidt and Leo Roeder of Fairfax, S. D. Cheryl Marie, daughter of Edmund J. and Mildred M. Nemec Richter, was born February 18, 1947 at Lynch. She was a pupil in the rural school near her home.

Her death came as the result of a horse back riding accident on August 3.

Survivors are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund J. Richter, a brother, Frank and a sister, Gladys, at home.

Accident Reported At Clearwater Friday

CLEARWATER—A two car accident was reported on the east edge of Clearwater Friday evening on highway 275 when an auto driven by A. W. Carroll of O'Neill rammed the rear of a gas tank wagon driven by E. M. Yaryan of Clearwater.

Yaryan was attempting a left turn at the time of the mishap. The car was badly damaged and the driver received minor injuries. Damage to the truck was negligible.

State Patrolmen R. Hausman and Eugene Hastreiter were the investigating officers.

Stewart Returns From Book Research Trip

Carroll "Cal" Stewart, former Frontier editor-publisher, has returned from a two month tour of European countries gathering facts for a book he is co-authoring on the Ploeste oil field raid of World War II. The book being researched is called "Black Sunday," and according to Stewart will be going forward at a rapid pace now that final details are ready to be edited.

Enlist in Navy

Two graduates of St. Mary's Academy, class of 1960, enlisted in the U. S. Navy, Aug 3 under the "buddy" group plan. They were Ronald Eugene Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Richards of Clearwater, and Richard John Cleary, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Cleary of O'Neill. Richards picked the field of Electronics while Cleary chose the Seaman field.

Supervisors Set O'Neill Mill Levy at 16.25

The budget for the coming fiscal year was adopted Wednesday and the mill levies were set by the Holt County Board of Supervisors.

Levies for the towns of the county are: O'Neill, 16.25; Atkinson, 19.95; Stuart, 11; Ewing, 26.50; Page, 14.22; Chambers, 13; Inman, 7; and Emmet, 11.

The school levies for the county are set as follows: Page, 41.12; O'Neill, 21.62 plus 1.80 for bonds for a total of 23.42; Emmet, 21.22 plus 5 for building or a total of 26.22; Atkinson, 38.02 and 8.66 for bonds for a total of 46.68; Ewing, 42.26; Inman, 33.22; Stuart, 50.48 and 9.42 for bonds for a total of 59.90; Chambers, 26.38.

The levies for two towns are complete. They are Chambers with $8.34 mills and Page with a mill levy of 75.66.

The mill levies for the other towns are estimated using last year's figures partially. O'Neill, 57.35; Emmet, 61.24; Atkinson, 84.65; Ewing, 87.98; Inman, 69.48; Stuart, 89.90. These figures include town, township, general, school, state and county levies.

The total of the state, institutional and county levies for the coming year is 16.02. This compares with 14.76 total last year.

The 1959 figures for the towns were: O'Neill, 15; Atkinson, 22.60; Stuart, 11; Ewing, 26.50; Page, 14.22; Chambers, 12; Inman, 7; and Emmet, 11.

Two bids had been received to assist the county in repairing flood damaged bridges.

The low bid of the Western Bridge Construction Co. of Omaha was accepted this morning and work will begin soon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Rosenkrans . . . on their fiftieth anniversary

H. V. Rosenkrans Celebrate Fiftieth Anniversary at Redbird Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Rosenkrans celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary Wednesday afternoon at their home in the Redbird community.

Miss Alma Alm and Harold V. Rosenkrans were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Alm, at Minneola on August 10, 1910. The couple lived on the Rosenkrans farm for forty years. They then operated the Redbird post office for nine years until it closed a year ago.

They became the parents of five children. Roger lives on the home place near Dorsey and is the third generation to operate the farm. Ernest is a minister in the Assembly of God church at Pender and Dorothy, Mrs. Milton Edwards of Pine Island, Minn., is married to an Assembly of God minister. Two sons, Arthur and Lester are deceased.

They have 12 grandchildren, 2 and 2 great grandchildren. The grandchildren are Larry, LaVonne, Marian, Dolores, Fred, Jerry and Lynn Rosenkrans.

Christie, Anita and David Edwards, Mrs. Allan (Connie) Walters and Richard Rosenkrans in California. The great grandchildren are Douglas and Allan Walters, Jr.

Mr. Rosenkrans raises bees for a hobby. His parents came to Holt county in 1881 or 1882 and he has been a life-long resident of the county. His grandfather was a Presbyterian minister. He was a superintendent of the Dorsey Presbyterian church for many years.

Mrs. Rosenkrans' parents came to Holt County in 1882 from Sweden. She has two brothers, Dr. Oscar Alm of Manhattan, Kan., and Arthur Alm of O'Neill and two sisters, Miss Clara Alm of O'Neill and Mrs. Herman (Elsie) Dimmit of Page.

Their niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Klein of Harlan, Ia., celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary on the same day.

President Peterson Names Chamber Of Commerce Committee Members

Chamber of Commerce President Harry Peterson released the names of the chamber committee chairman and members this week. The men were chosen with the cooperation of the chamber board of directors.

The chairmen of the different committees and the committee members are as follows: Highways Committee: Leo Moore, chairman, Tony Asimus, Jim Earley, Fred Heerman, Carl Johnson and Senator Frank Nelson.

Retail Trade Committee: A. L. Patton, chairman, Winnie Bargar, John Enke, George Janousek, Joe McCarville, Bill McIntosh, Frank McKenny, Joe McLeish, Don Meyer, Robert Roberts, Melvin Ruzicka and Joe Stutz.

New Industries Committee: Ray Eby, chairman, Virgil Laursen, Gil Poese, Wayne Spelts, Francis Tights and M. C. Trupp. Membership Committee: K. L. Chamber— (Continued on page 4.)

William Olk Killed In Auto Crash Saturday

William Olk, about 60, of Petersburg died Sunday in Columbus of injuries suffered in an auto mishap Saturday night near Monroe.

A car driven by Mr. Olk and one driven by Leonard Williams, 39, of Columbus collided head-on on highway 22.

Mr. Olk is the father of Mrs. Joe Stutz of O'Neill.

O'Neill Swimming Pool Damaged by Vandals

The O'Neill swimming pool was damaged late Saturday night or early Sunday by vandals. Damage was estimated at nearly $200. Shower curtains, mirrors and a clock were damaged and bottles, benches and other debris were thrown into the pool. The pool was closed Sunday but was open Monday.

Church Group Opens Meeting Near Atkinson

Special conference services began Wednesday evening at the Wesleyan Camp Grounds located east of Atkinson on highway 20 and will be concluded Thursday evening. Camp meeting services open Friday evening at 7:45 and end Sunday evening, Aug. 21.

Rev. John L. Landrey of Sacramento, Calif., will be guest speaker and the inspirational singing and special music will be led by Jerry Terrill of Lincoln.

Esther Grossbach of Rapid City, S. D., will be in charge of the children's services for the conference and camp.

Rev. Landrey is a former missionary with 14 years of service in India.

Sunday school will be held at the O'Neill Wesleyan church August 14 and 21 at 9:30 a.m. instead of 10 the usual hour. All other worship services will be discontinued during the conference and camp services.

Sixty Five Compete In 4-H Contest

Sixty-five 4-H members and leaders from 12 clubs took part in the 4-H livestock judging workshop held Saturday at O'Neill.

Three classes of dairy animals, three classes of beef animals, a class of fat lambs and a class of market hogs were judged by the group. Joe Laebeke, 4-H leader from Page, was the official judge of the dairy classes and A. J. Snyder, Holt County Farm and Home Development agent put the official placings on the livestock classes.

The first ten places in the dairy judging were Alvin Crumley, Mary Lou Laebeke, Becky Beelaert, John Crumly all of Page, John Wabs of O'Neill and Marvin Dawes of O'Neill tied for fifth and sixth, Seal Laebeke, and Jim Melcher of Page, Dennis Funk of Clearwater and Billy Halstead of Lynch.

In the livestock judging the top ten judges were Larry Dohrovinsky of O'Neill, Bonnie Melke of Ewing, Seal Laebeke of Page, Jim Melcher and Lynn Grass, both of Page, tied for fourth and fifth, Keith Krugman and Eldon Krugman of O'Neill, Dennis Funk of Clearwater, John Crumley of Page and Joy Dvorak of Atkinson.

The county dairy and livestock judging contests will be held Tuesday, Aug. 16, at 4 p.m. as part of the Holt County Fair.

The kindergarten program will include two sections, one morning and one afternoon. There will be two qualified teachers in each section.

School hours for the fourth and seventh grades will vary from the other students. The fourth grade morning schedule will commence at 7:45 a.m. and stop at 12 noon. The afternoon schedule will begin at 12:45 and stop at 3:30 p.m.

The seventh grade morning schedule will commence at 7:30 a.m. and stop at 11:45 and the afternoon group will start at 12:30 and stop at 5 p.m. The approval and accreditation manual for Nebraska schools specifies the length of a minimum school day in grades 7-12 shall be 6 hours exclusive of the noon hour. In grades 1-6 the minimum time is 5 hours for the basic program.

The kindergarten program will include two sections, one morning and one afternoon. There will be two qualified teachers in each section.

The kindergarten program will include two sections, one morning and one afternoon. There will be two qualified teachers in each section.

The kindergarten program will include two sections, one morning and one afternoon. There will be two qualified teachers in each section.

The kindergarten program will include two sections, one morning and one afternoon. There will be two qualified teachers in each section.

The kindergarten program will include two sections, one morning and one afternoon. There will be two qualified teachers in each section.

The kindergarten program will include two sections, one morning and one afternoon. There will be two qualified teachers in each section.

The kindergarten program will include two sections, one morning and one afternoon. There will be two qualified teachers in each section.

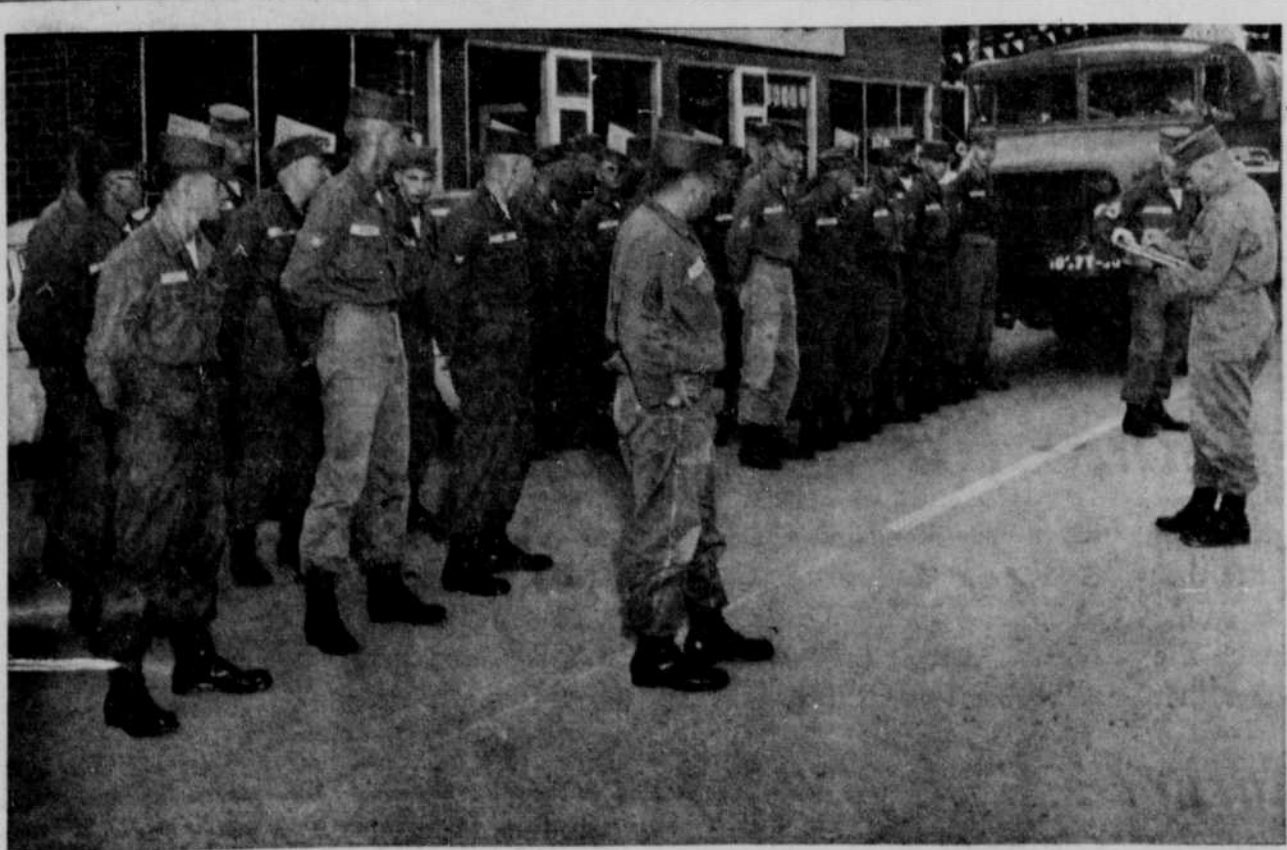

The kindergarten program will include two sections, one morning and one afternoon. There will be two qualified teachers in each section.

The kindergarten program will include two sections, one morning and one afternoon. There will be two qualified teachers in each section.

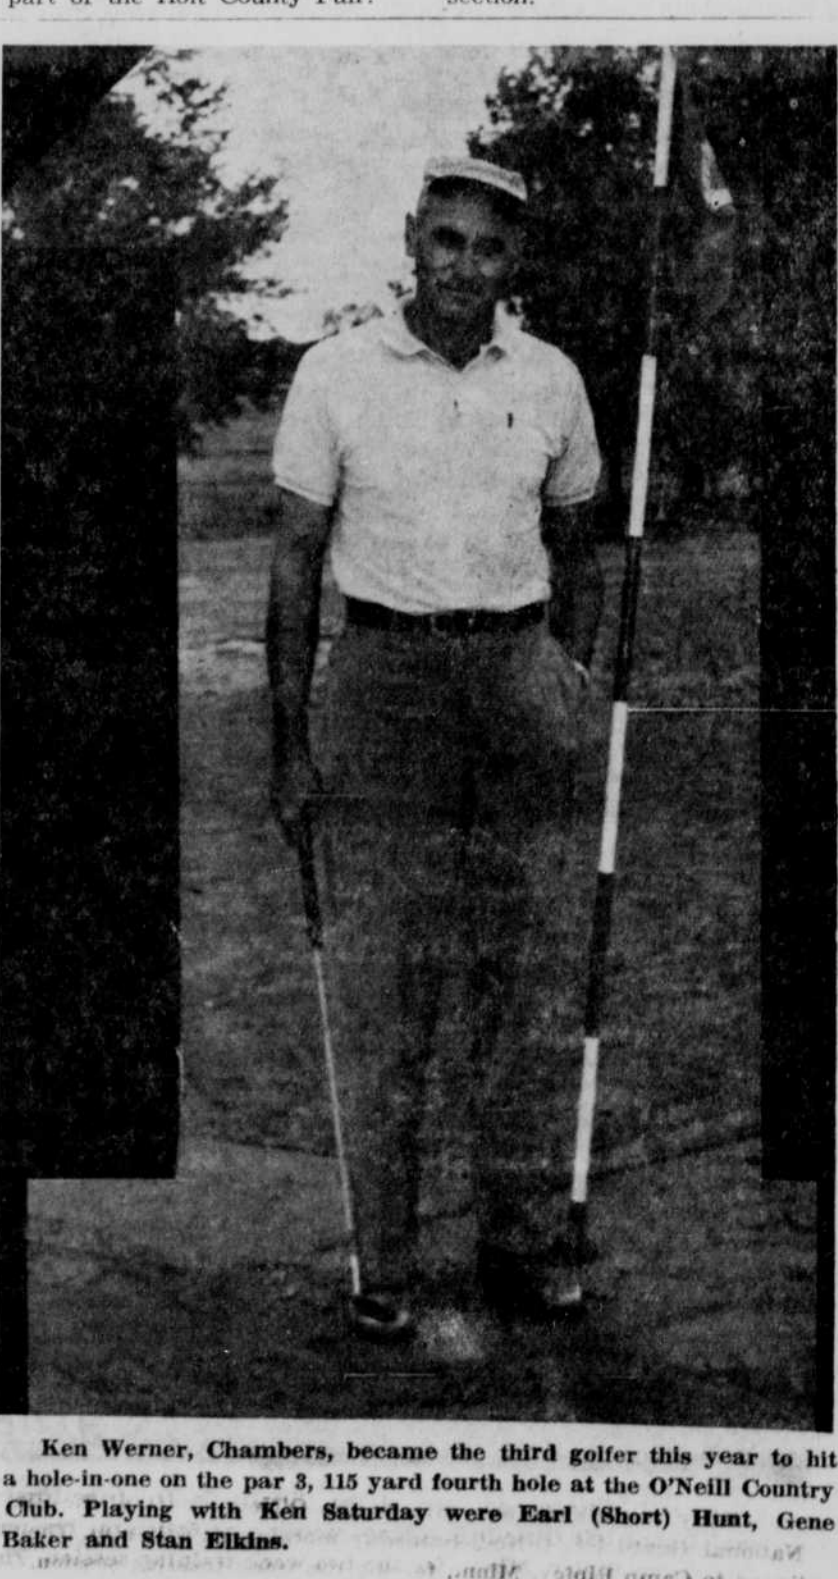

The kindergarten program will include two sections, one morning and one afternoon. There will be two qualified teachers in each section.

The kindergarten program will include two sections, one morning and one afternoon. There will be two qualified teachers in each section.

The kindergarten program will include two sections, one morning and one afternoon. There will be two qualified teachers in each section.

Fifty-two officers and men of the O'Neill Co. D. of the First BG of the 134th Infantry of the O'Neill National Guard left O'Neill Saturday morning at 6:15 a.m. The unit joined the Wayne unit and then continued to Camp Ripley, Minn., for the two week training session. The unit will return to O'Neill August 21.

Ken Werner, Chambers, became the third golfer this year to hit a hole-in-one on the par 3, 115 yard fourth hole at the O'Neill Country Club. Playing with Ken Saturday were Earl (Short) Hunt, Gene Baker and Stan Elkins.