Karen Kay Bowers, E. Havranek Wed In Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Karen Kay Bowers of Bristow and Eddie Dean Havranek of Spencer were married Saturday, Aug 6 in a 7 p.m. candlelight ceremony in the Trinity Lutheran church in Bristow. The Rev. Hugh Dowler of Spencer officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowers of Bristow. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Havranek of Spencer.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Eddie Dean Danielson, Mrs. E. P. Cook of Omaha sang, "At Dawning", "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. E. A. Chace, pianist. The church altar was decorated with bouquets of white and orchid gladioli.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, appeared in a floor length gown of delectable satin and chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was styled with a jeweled lace scalloped sabrina neckline and bridal sleeves. Lace was appliqued on the bouffant skirt which fell into an aisle wide train. Her illusion veil was caught in a jeweled hat. The bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of deep orchid and white chrysanthemums and feathered carnations.

Mrs. Larry Bowers of Bristow, sister-in-law of the bride, was the matron of honor. Miss Rosemary Johnson of Omaha, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Cathy Cook of Omaha were bridesmaids. They wore identical violet organza ballerinina gowns with low necklines, shirred bodices and gathered skirts. A darker violet velvet cummerbund accented the waist. They wore matching hats with a halo veil. The bouquets were orchid and white chrysan-
