Rita Kathryn Jilg, David Becker Wed In O'Neill Church

Miss Rita Kathryn Jilg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Jilg of O'Neill, and David Becker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Becker of Seneca, Kan., were united in marriage Sunday, Aug. 13 at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill. Msgr. Timothy O'Sullivan officiated at the 10 a.m. nuptial mass before an altar decorated with bouquets of white gladioli and purple asters.

Miss Theresa Murphy of Atchison, Kan., sang, "Panis Angelicus," "Ave Maria" and "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother." Miss Dolores Makadanz of Springfield, Kan., played the organ.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza. The basque bodice featured a square neckline trimmed with pearl embroidered alencon lace. The bouffant skirt was highlighted with the same motif of alencon lace. The skirt was drawn back into a triple bustle effect and swept into a chapel train. Her finger tip illusion veil fell from a double crown of alencon lace over satin. She carried a white orchid with Stephanotis and a cascade of leaves made of alencon lace.

Miss Mary Westerman of Kansas City, Kan., was the maid of honor. Miss Patricia Smith and Miss Carlene Schoenle of Kansas City and Miss Mary Ellen Konrad of Seneca, Kan., were bridesmaids. Their street length gowns of lavender silk organza were styled with sabrina necklines and cap sleeves. The cummerbunds were of lavender taffeta. Bands of alencon lace over lavender satin secured face length veils of lavender tulle. They carried purple and lavender asters fashioned in crescent shaped bouquets with lavender velvet leaves.

Bill Mathewson of Wichita, Kan., cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Max Becker of Topeka and Glenn Becker of Seneca, brothers of the bridegroom, and Jim Boeding of Seneca were groomsmen.

Reige Becker and David Koelzer were ushers.

Paula Ann Meuller of Wausa and Jo Ann Rawley of Pierce were flower girls. Their dresses were identical to those worn by the bridesmaids.

The mother of the bride wore a navy blue lace dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a two piece navy tulle dress with navy and white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink feathered carnations.

A dinner was held following the ceremony at the L & R cafe for members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

A reception was held at the home of the parents of the bride.

Miss Nyla Jaskowink cut and served the three tier wedding cake. Miss Therese Murphy served.

Marilyn McMullen of Kansas City, Mo., registered the guests. Miss Janice Becker of Seneca, Kan., and Miss Karlen Imler of Tipton, Mo., were in charge of the gifts.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy. She attended St. Mary's college. She graduated from the Providence School of Nursing of Kansas City, Kan. The bridegroom graduated from St. Peter and Paul high school of Seneca, Kan., and spent two years in the navy. He is employed in construction work.

Mrs. Becker chose a white sheath dress with blue embroidery and white accessories for their wedding trip. She wore a white orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Becker will reside in Seneca, Kan.

Ruth Ann Damme Rubin Miller Exchange Vows

The Methodist church in Chambers was the scene of the wedding of Miss Ruth Ann Damme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Damme of Chambers, and Ruben H. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Miller of White Sulphur Springs, Mont., on Sunday, Aug. 21.

The Rev. Charles Cox performed the 4 p.m. double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of gladioli and candelabra.

Mrs. Lynn Myers of Seattle, Wash., sang, "O Perfect Love" and "Whither Thou Goest" accompanied by Miss Dorine Glead at the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She appeared in a street length dress of white nylon chiffon over lace and taffeta featuring a fitted bodice with a rounded neckline, cap sleeves and a full skirt. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a cap of white nylon chiffon. She wore bridal mits of white lace and chiffon. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink feathered carnations.

Mrs. Ruth Damme, sister-in-law of the bride, was the matron of honor. Her street length dress of blue batiste also featured a rounded neckline and cap sleeves. She wore a small blue hat and carried a bouquet of pink pompon chrysanthemums with pink and white streamers.

Marvin Damme of Lincoln was the best man. Larry Damme, brother of the bride, was a candle lighter.

A reception was held at the home of the parents of the bride for the immediate families and a few friends.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Chambers high school and Lincoln General Hospital School of Nursing. She is employed in Lincoln.

Mr. Miller is with the air force and is presently stationed in Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller will be at home at 2339 South 18th St., Lincoln.

O'Neill firemen were called to the Ernest Kloppenborg farm 10 miles north of O'Neill Tuesday night when this tractor caught fire. The machine was being re-fueled and the engine was turned off but some of the liquid spilled on the hot engine igniting the fuel. Firemen were called to the K and M Cafe Wednesday when grease on the stove in the kitchen ignited. Firemen were able to extinguish the blaze before much damage was done.

Alan Norris was Groomsman. Ushers were Merle Boelter and Gene Peterson. Larry Butterfield was the ringbearer.

A reception was held following the ceremony. The guests were registered by Miss Elinor Mittel. Mrs. Jack Grubbs cut the cake and Mrs. Barbara Twibelle served the punch. The Ladies Aid served the reception. Miss Janice Butterfield was in charge of the gifts assisted by members of the 1960 graduating class.

The couple will make their home in Lincoln.

Mary Reisselman Kenneth Katzer Marry In Naper

The Sacred Heart Catholic church at Naper was the scene of the wedding of Miss Mary Jane Reisselman and Kenneth Katzer on Saturday, August 13 at 9:30 a.m. The Rev. Kingsley officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Reisselman are the parents of the bride and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Katzer.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a floor length gown of lace. It featured a scalloped neckline and bridal sleeves. She wore a crown outlined with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Mabel Reisselman, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid. She wore a blue taffeta dress with hat to match. She carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations.

Dennis Reisselman, a cousin of the bride, was the best man.

A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents.

Orchard Ceremony Sunday Unites Cederburg-Peterson

Miss Janniel Rae Cederburg of Orchard and Airmen 2/c Lowell Harley Peterson of Lincoln were married Sunday, Aug. 14 at St. Peter's Lutheran church at Orchard. The Rev. Walter Seefeldt officiated at the 2:30 p.m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Cederburg of Orchard. Mr. and Mrs. Harley Peterson of Plainview are the parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Dennis Venson, sister of the bridegroom, was the soloist accompanied by Mrs. Van Court of Plainview. The sanctuary was decorated with altar bouquets of white gladioli and orchid pompon chrysanthemums.

The bride entered the church on a white carpet. She wore a gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle. Scallops of lace embroidered with sequins and pearls framed the sabrina neckline. The bouffant skirt was accented with hand cut lace panels. Her veil of French illusion was caught by a double crown trimmed with pearls and rhinestones. She carried a cascade arrangement of Stephanotis and ivy centered with an orchid.

Miss Jan Withill of Orchard was maid of honor. Miss Alice Niles of Orchard and Miss Barbara Ogen of Humboldt, Ia., were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of orchid organza over taffeta with matching headpieces. They carried bouquets of white carnations tipped with orchid.

Rebecca Ogan of Madison and Dianne Peterson were the candlelighters. They wore gowns of white organza. Colleen Ogan and LaVaille Peterson were the flower girls in orchid organza gowns. Airmen 2/c Marion Cederburg, brother of the bride, was the best man. Dennis Venson and

Irrigation Well Demonstration Set Wednesday

An irrigation well testing demonstration will be held Wednesday, Aug. 31, at 1:30 p.m., at the Curry Farms located five miles north and one and one half miles east of Atkinson.

Leon Axthelm, Extension Irrigationist at the University of Nebraska will conduct the test and evaluate the test results.

A. J. Snyder, Holt county Farm and Home Development agent, explained that the purpose of well testing is to determine the efficiency of the well, pumping plant and water distribution systems as compared to a standard of 100 per cent efficiency.

An evaluation of well test results may point up changes that can be made in the pumping unit to improve its efficiency. Some of the changes that usually need to be made are different pump bowl settings, change in horsepower applied to pump and change in speed of pump operation.

South Dakota Ranchers Need Hay Badly

South Dakota needs hay according to a report received from A. J. Snyder, Holt county Farm and Home Development agent.

The South Dakota Department of Agriculture is trying to find sources of hay for drought stricken ranchers in the western part of the state. The range conditions in that area are very poor and the hay crop was practically non-existent.

Anyone having surplus hay to sell should contact Don Writhe, South Dakota Department of Agriculture, Pierre, S. D. Include information about the hay, kind, amount for sale, location from nearest town and if it is baled or stacked.

Coaches Believe Teams To Have Successful Year

Football practice opened for both O'Neill teams this week and both Coach Jake Hawley of the O'Neill public school and Coach Don Templemeyer of St. Mary's Cardinals express feelings for very successful seasons.

Coach Hawley has 17 lettermen returning and with some minor position switches, has a letterman for every spot. Hawley said that the Valentine game, which is here, will tell him for sure just how things stand.

A weak spot might develop at the guard position but the coach has Steve Peterson and lettermen Curt Larson, Larry Godel and Mike Injuri to fill the hole.

"Having injuries, we're a better team than we were last year," said Hawley. "Jack McGinn, expected to handle the quarterback slot, has gained 20 pounds and Jerry Kileoin has put on 11 pounds during the summer."

Other players reporting for practice are Mike Fletcher, a 219 pound transfer from Illinois, Gary Devall, Pat McConnell, Gary Plessel, Rick Devall, Terry Kurtz, Steve Peterson, Rolly Johnson, Stan Schmichael, Greg Derickson, Dennis Spangler, Larry Leib, Dean Larson, Rich

Hill, Bruce Herley, Larry Dawes, Steve Reynolds, Don Linquist, Keith Klugman and Dan Schauf. Coach Templemeyer is not as optimistic as Coach Hawley, but he does have ten lettermen returning and 24 men out for football. Templemeyer will also make some position shifts in an attempt to put lettermen at almost every position.

The letterman returning are Tom Higgins, a two year man, Bill Hynes, Terry Gallagher, Gene Shoemaker, Steve Higgins, Larry Gilg, Jim Spitzberger, Tom Wanser, Roy Bellina and Cal Peters. Tom Higgins and Bill Hynes are the co-captains.

Their remaining squad are Bob Murphy, Lynn Gallagher, Rich Pongrats, Jerry Bcha, Owen Donchoe, Norm Mudloff, Mike Gallagher, Charles Corkle, Jerry Oetter, Bill Pruss, Terry Tomjack, Mike Hammond, Joe Shoemaker and Mike Kamphaus.

Here is the St. Mary's 1960 schedule: November 9th—Stuart, there; 16th—Holy Trinity of Hartington, here; 23—Hasting St. Cecilia, there; 29th—Scotia, there; October 7—open; 13th—Norfolk, here; 20th—West Point Guardian Angels, here; 25th—Atkinson, here; and November 2—Ewing, here.
