Miss Janet Ann Mueller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Mueller of Geneva, became the bride of John J. Bartak, son of Mrs. Stanley Bartak and the late Mr. Bartak, at St. Joseph's Catholic church at Geneva at 10 o'clock Saturday, Aug. 6. The Rev. Paul Ulenberg performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Charles Miller and Mrs. John O'Brien sang the wedding music. Miss Mary Cumberland was the organist. Bouquets of pink and white gladioli flanked the communion rail and the pews were marked with white satin bows.

Robert Mueller, cousin of the bride, and Paul Weis served the mass.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She selected a floor length gown of silk taffeta. The skirt with wide flounces draped at either side and in back to form a chapel train, was of silk taffeta appliqued with imported French lace. The portrait neckline of the lace bodice was outlined with tiny pearls. Her elbow length veil of bridal tulle fell from a Swedish crown. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Thomas C. Ousey was the matron of honor. Miss Carolyn Bernasek was the bridesmaid. The flower girls were Mary Stengel and Jerri Kamler, cousins of the bride. They wore identical dresses of white eyelet with a tie of pink chiffon. The hairpieces were pink. They carried bouquets of white carnations.

Sievers poured coffee and Miss Rosemarie O'Brien, cousin of the bride, poured the punch. Miss Deloris Stengel, aunt of the bride, served the ice cream. Valdez, Alaska
Aug. 22-1960
The Frontier
O'Neill, Nebr.
Dear Sir:
I am enclosing my check of $3.00 for the Frontier for one year.

For years the paper has been coming to my mother, Mrs. A.J. Meala, but she passed away last November 16 at the age of 100 yr. one month and 24 days. It has been over 37 years since I left O'Neill and I have never been back since leaving, but I do remember places and names of the older people who still live there, and I often read about them in the Frontier, so please continue sending it.

My brother George lives on a farm near Atkinson, and other relatives are settled in O'Neill, Atkinson and other Nebraska towns, so I still enjoy reading the news from Nebraska.

Very truly yours
Mrs. W. J. Whalen
