O'Neill Eagles To Open Season With Valentine

The O'Neill High Gridders finished their two practice a day schedule Monday, Tuesday they started practice at 3:30 as it will follow during the school year. Most of the 33 boys that have checked out so far have been able to attend at least on practice a day with nearly all letterman at all practices. Jerry Kilcoin and Larry Doulin are suffering from minor injuries but should be ready for the night scrimmage Friday.

The scrimmage game is scheduled to start at 8:15 with a meeting with parents and interesting persons in the football program, preceding it at 7:30 in the gymnasium. Those attending the scrimmage game will be charged one bar of soap admittance.

The coaching staff feels that the boys are progressing quite well and barring serious injuries, should make a respectable showing against Valentine in home opener which starts at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 9. Valentine is the defending NCHC champion beating O'Neill last year 13-0.

Darold Ermer was elected personal captain of the squad for the coming season and has been showing up well in the fullback and end spot.
