Bonnie Grimes Marries Charles Gustafson In Colorado Ceremony

Miss Bonnie Grimes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Grimes of Fort Collins, Colo., and Charles Gustafson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gustafson of Eaton, Colo., were married in a 8 p.m. ceremony at the Evangelical Free church in Fort Collins Sunday, Aug. 14. Rev. Gordon Gustafson officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Leland Carlson and Rev. D. B. Linquist of Eaton, Colo., sang, "Together," "Wedding Prayer" and "Christian Wedding" accompanied by Mrs. Linquist at the organ. The sanctuary was decorated with a large basket of white gladioli and yellow chrysanthemums, a pair of candelabra at the altar and candles in the windows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of French tulle over slipper satin. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped neckline embroidered with sequins and seed pearls and bridal sleeves. The bouffant skirt was designed with lace panel insets and alternate tiers of lace and tulle. Her illusion veil was caught in a crown encrusted with sequins and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and yellow feathered carnations.

Mrs. Nancy Gustafson, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor. Miss Cheryl Stevens of Atkinson, cousin of the bride, and Miss Judy Zentz of Fort Collins were the bridesmaids. They wore street length dresses of turquoise chiffon over taffeta with matching hats. They carried bouquets of a single yellow chrysanthemum tied with a velvet cord.

Seger-Devall Wives Exchanged Sunday At Methodist Church

Miss Janet Seger of O'Neill became the bride of Dwayne Elmer Devall of O'Neill in a candlelight ceremony Sunday, Aug. 28 at the First Methodist church. The Rev. Glenn Kennicott performed the 8 p.m. double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Seger of O'Neill are the parents of the bride and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Devall of O'Neill.

Duane Booth of Creighton sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Reed Herley at the organ. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of imported rose point lace taffeta. The basque bodice featured a scalloped Sabrina neckline with lace bridal sleeves. The bouffant skirt worn over stiffened petticoats was styled with tiers of lace at the sides which emphasized the panels of taffeta embroidered with medallions of matching lace and extended into an aisle wide train. Her veil of imported silk illusion fell in a full circular sweep from a jeweled coronet. She carried a cascade arrangement of white Fuji chrysanthemums with green velvet streamers.

Miss Linda Seger was the maid of honor for her sister. She wore a blue satin sheath dress with an overskirt. She carried a chrysalis bouquet of blue and white chrysanthemums.

Vickie Seger, sister of the bride, was the candle lighter.

Will Berry, of Waterloo, Ia. was the best man. Bill Eby and Ben Devall, a brother of the bridegroom, were the ushers. A reception for members of the immediate family and bridal party was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Devall is a graduate of the O'Neill high school. Mr. Devall also graduated from the O'Neill high school, and is attending the University of Nebraska.

The couple will reside at Lincoln.
