Amelia News

By Miss Florence Lindsey

H. S. White accompanied Rev. Chambers to Ewing Sunday morning for services at the Riverside Free Methodist church. Mrs. Edith Andersen, Mrs. Delia Ernst, Mrs. Lindsey and Florence were O'Neill callers Sunday to visit Glenn White at the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Urbom and two children of Grand Island were Saturday and Sunday visitors with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Earnie Johnston. Mrs. Cecilia Hemmerberg of Atkinson, and her sister, Margaret Harton, and a friend of Detroit, Mich., were callers at the Amelia telephone office one day last week. Miss Harton was a phone operator in Atkinson before the dial system was installed. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Smith of North Platte were Thursday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. B.W. Waldo.

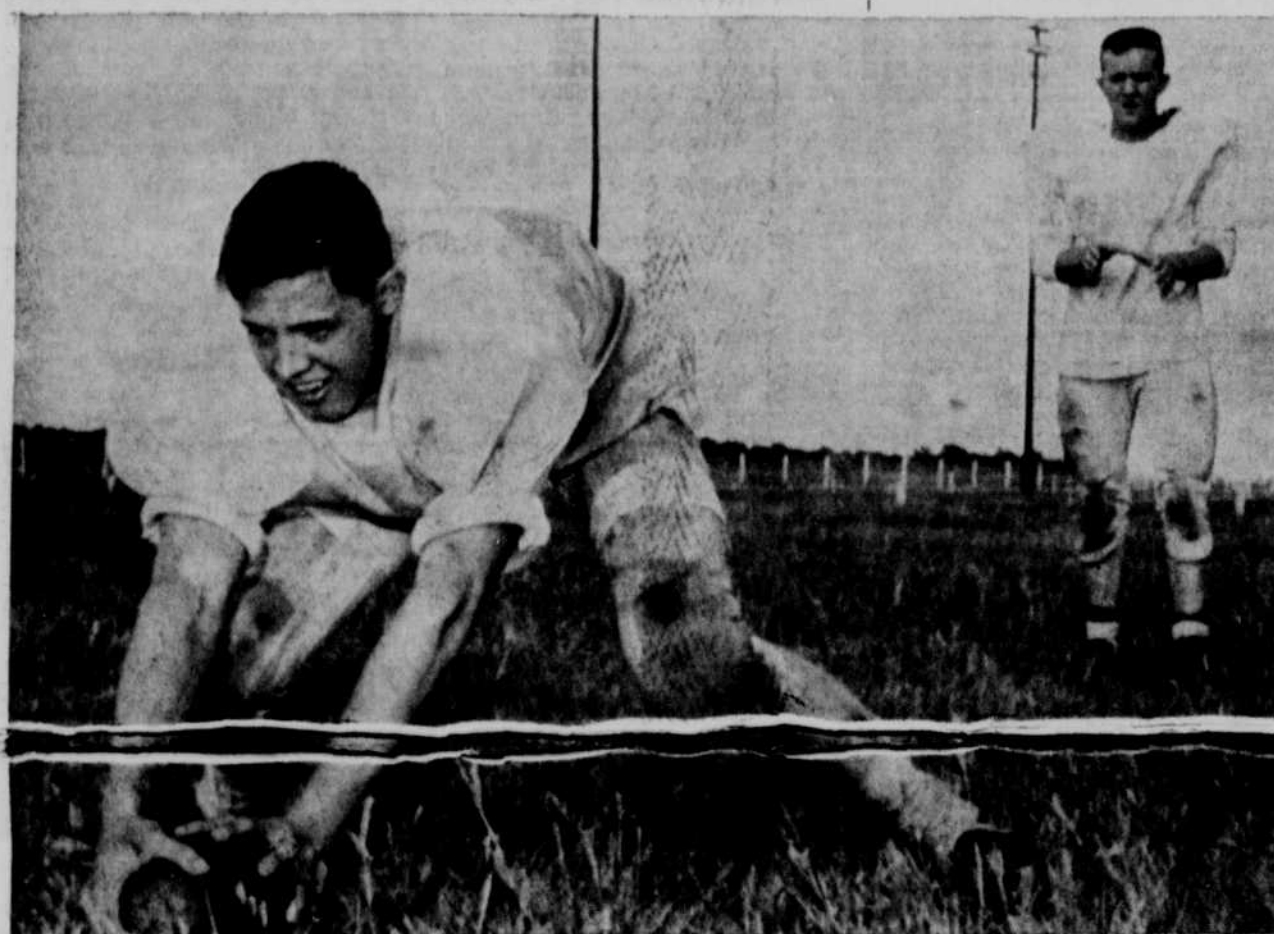

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Serbousek and children of Pierre, S. D. and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schultz of Bismark, N. D. were overnight guests on Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Lew Backhaus. On Sunday the group went to the home of Mrs. Backhaus' brother, Bill Vrooman near Venus, for a picnic. Mrs. Serbousek is a cousin and Mrs. Schultz an aunt of Mrs. Backhaus. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schroder and family of Burwell visited Mrs. Maude Forbes and the Henie Frahm family Sunday. Misses Linda and Carol Gruenberg of Stuart visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Fryrear from Tuesday until Saturday of last week. Mrs. Fryrear and the girls called on Mrs. Lindsey and Florence Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Martz, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Stanfield of Whittier, Calif., and Miss Erma Hillhouse of Pueblo, Colo., visited at the B. W. Waldo home over Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Martz is Mrs. Waldo's sister. Don Peterson and his friend Miss Patricia Mahoney of Casper, Wyo., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Peterson over the weekend, returning to Casper on Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kennedy and two daughters of Riverside, Calif., arrived Friday and are visiting their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Kennedy and Mrs. Alice Prewitt and other relatives. Several ladies, members of the Women's Society of Christian Service cleaned the school house in Amelia Wednesday. Mrs. Blake Ott, Mrs. Gloria Landrum and Sally were Grand Island shoppers Friday. Paul Fisher took his daughter, Mrs. Lynn Myers and son, Timmy to Wakita, Okla. on Wednesday to join her husband there. He has been working and visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Myers there. Mrs. Stella Sparks and Mrs. Ger-tie Adair visited Sunday afternoon and evening with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce. School began its term in Amelia on Monday morning, Aug. 29. Jerajd Clenahan and Mrs. Orland Fryrear returned to teach again this year. Mrs. Fryrear has two new beginners, Bruce Burge and Sue Doolittle, and one new pupil in the second grade whose parents are working at Ed Jungman's. Darlene Chambers, daughter of the Free Methodist Minister, is a seventh grader in Mr. McClenahan's room. Young folks entering high school from Amelia this year are Lana Kay Oetter and Darla Waldo attending in Chambers, Joyce Doolittle and Billy Hansen are attending Atkinson high school. Dick Bilstien, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bilstien is attending Atkinson high school this year. Mr. and Mrs. Don Houston of Hamilton, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Dale Butterfield, Doretta, Randy and Lorn visited at the Delbert Edwards on Sunday. Miss Arlis Edwards began teaching in the Swan Lake school Monday. Misses Cathy and Joyce Doolittle are doing light housekeeping at the home of Mrs. Amy Slaymaker while attending high school in Atkinson. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Clemens, Janette and Dan attended the 50th wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jungman Sunday at Atkinson. We received a grand rain Saturday evening totaling nearly two inches. A little hail fell, but there was no damage to gardens or crops.

Harry Swanson Leading Driver At Stuart Races
