

O'NEILL HOMECOMING SCENES

Here's the winning float prepared by the junior class which featured the ever watchful Eagle.

Jerry Kilcoin paced the Eagles to Victory in their homecoming game as he scored three times. His longest jaunt of the evening was a 90-yard sprint for a touchdown in the second half.

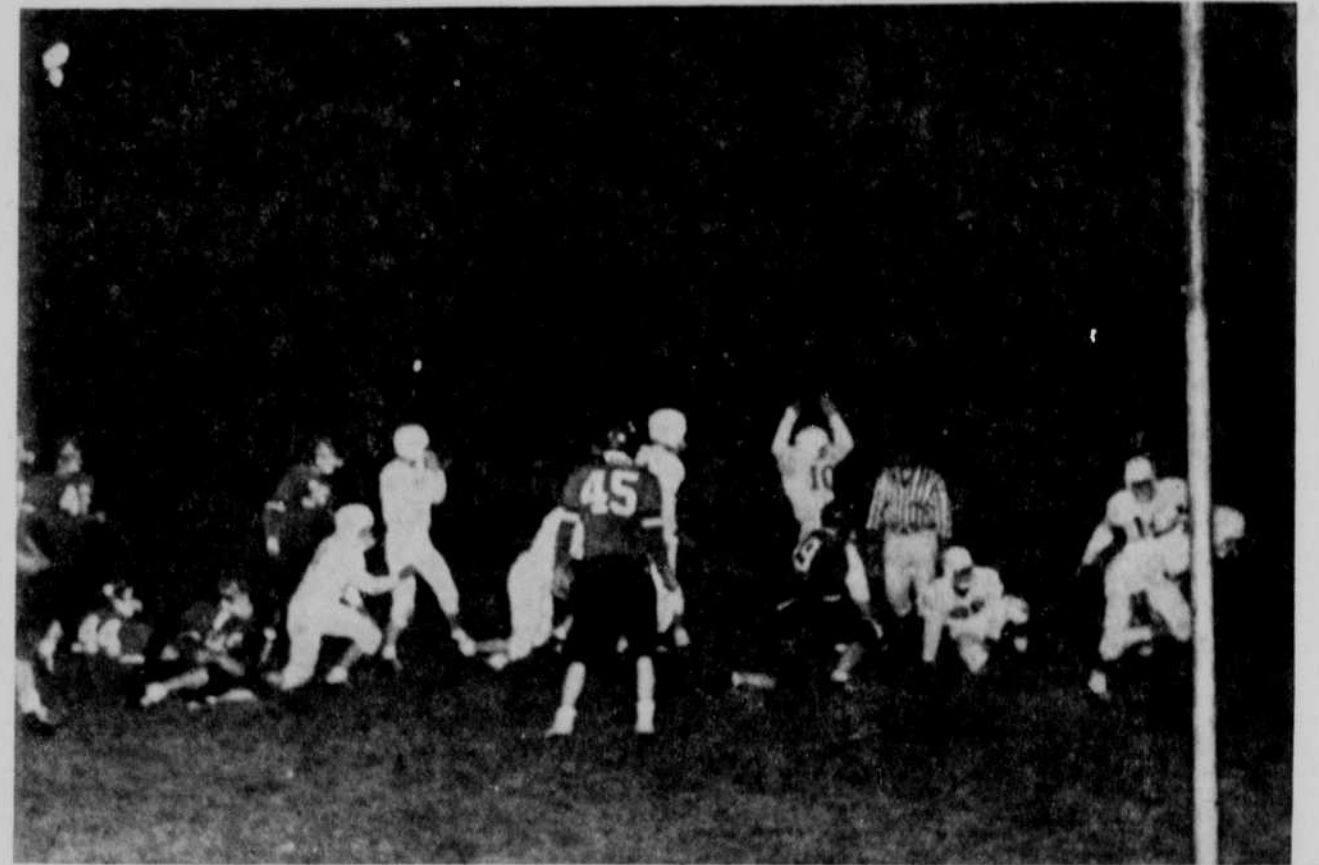

The Future Homemakers were going to give Creighton a good cleaning.

Darold Ermer receives his crown from coach Hawley while Maureen Schaaf is presented with a bouquet by Charles Smith.

The five candidates for queen were: Sandra Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Perry; Sonita Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wilson; Maureen Schaaf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schaaf; Linda Seger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Seger and Susan Burney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Burney. All candidates must be members of the pep club. The king was selected from the 45 members of the O'Neill football team.

Kilcoin carries over from the two year line to start the Eagles on their way to a homecoming victory.

The Freshmen were confident that O'Neill could "float to victory."

The Future Farmers float was all set to score.

Coach Jake Hawley gives his squad a pep talk during half time activities.

This float, entered by the Junior high, was named as the third place winner.

The Junior class took second place with their float showing an Eagle ready to blast off to victory.

This float depicting the pitiful condition of the Bulldogs was prepared by the sophomore class.