

A Poem

From Mrs. Eby ...

—The First Thanksgiving—Children do you know the story of the first Thanksgiving day?
Founded by our Pilgrim fathers in that time so far away.
They have given for religion, wealth and comfort, yes and more, Left their friends and homes and kinsman for that bleak and barren shore
On rugged old New England
Headland, there where peaceful Plymouth lies.
Near their built their rude log cabins near the cold forbidding skies,
And too often e'en the bravest felt their blood run cold with dread.
Lest the wild and savage red man burn the roof above his head, Want and sickness, death and sorrow met their eyes on every hand,
And before the spring had reached them they had buried half their band,
But those patient pilgrim mothers as the harvest time drew near, Looked with happy thankful faces at the full corn in the ear.
So the Governor, William Bradford in the gladness of his heart, To thank God for those brave pilgrims set a special day apart, That was in the autumn children, sixteen hundred twenty one, Scarce a year from when they landed and the colony began,
And now in bleak and cold November, when our Thanksgiving feast is spread,
Think its the same time honored custom of those Pilgrims long since dead.
