Atkinson News

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts of Atkinson have received word from their son, Garrold, that he has arrived safely in Spain. He spent a 20-day leave with his parents in October, after having received eight weeks of training in radar control tower operations. He flew from Charleston, S. C., to Spain by way of Newfoundland, where he was stationed for 20 months in 1958 since 1958. Gary enlisted in the Navy in July of this year. His address is: Garrold M. Roberts, AC/3, 3198586, GCA No. 51, Box 7, Navy 537, FPO, New York, N.Y.

Use Christmas Seals

Richard L. Roberts, another son of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, was recently promoted to the rank of sergeant. He is stationed with the Army in Korea. He has been in Korea since December of last year, and writes that he expects to be home with his parents for Christmas.

Bernard D. Engler, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Engler of Atkinson, has been released from the Army, and recently returned from Baumholder Germany, where he spent about 17 months. He was met in Omaha by his parents and they returned to Atkinson last Friday.

Dennis Hickok spent Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Hickok. He is a student at Kearney State Teachers College in Kearney.

Sharon Kokes visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kokes, in Atkinson over the weekend. She is an instructor of speech therapy in several Lincoln schools.

Country Women's Club

The Atkinson Country Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Richard Crippen with Mrs. Louis Siebert as co-hostess. Mrs. Ray Elder presented several contacts. The next meeting will be a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Siebert on December 8. All members are asked to bring a gift for the grabbag and one for their mystery sister.

The Live and Learn Extension club met at the home of Mrs. Orville Hitchcock on Thursday, Nov. 17, with Mrs. Ray Grof as co-hostess. Roll call was answered by a one-dish meal recipe. Mrs. W. J. Wilkinson gave a report on now important honey is in the diet.

The lesson was on Christmas lighting. The Christmas party will be December 15, at the home of Mrs. Ray Grof, with a covered-dish luncheon and gift exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Jones, Cindy and Randy, drove to Lincoln to spend Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. Jones' mother and sister, Mrs. Sylvia Jones and Jean. They also expect to visit relatives in Pawnee City before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dierks jr. of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Dierks of Omaha and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Slaymaker of Atkinson were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dierks and Janet of Atkinson. Henry jr., Justin, Mrs. Slaymaker and Janet are children of Mr. and Mrs. Dierks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horner jr. and Lisa, of Sioux City, Ia., are spending Thanksgiving weekend at the home of his father, Robert Horner, in Atkinson. They returned to their home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Butterfield and daughters, Tara, Pamela, Brenda and Debra of Kearney came Thursday morning to have Thanksgiving dinner at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Rose Podany of Atkinson, and to visit at their parents homes, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Butterfield, sr., and Kenny, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts, Mickey, Ronny, and Mona. They returned to their home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nilson were Thanksgiving guests at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr and Mrs. Fred Roberts and family.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Butterfield and daughters of Kearney, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Butterfield sr. and Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nilson, Mr. and Mrs. Faye Nilson and children and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nilson and Lonnie of Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kokes went to Grand Island Tuesday enroute to Portland, Ore., to attend the wedding of their son, Charles, to Miss Marilyn Jo Beeler of Gaston, Ore. In Grand Island they were joined by their daughter, Sharon, of Lincoln, and their son, Gary, of Wilmette, Ill. and all boarded a train for Portland, expecting to arrive there Thanksgiving morning.

The wedding was originally scheduled for December 31 but advanced to an earlier date because Mr. Kokes, who is employed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, recently was advised of a transfer to New Orleans, La., effective December 8.

Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Mancuso and family went to Omaha to spend Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr and Mrs. Frank Mancuso.

Dr. and Mrs. N. P. McKee went to Denver Colorado to spend

Thanksgiving with their son Neal McKee and family.

Mary Martha Circle

The Mary-Martha Circle of the United Presbyterian church met Thursday, Nov. 17, at the home of Mrs. Gerald Upton with twelve members present. A Thanksgiving service was conducted by Mrs. Robert Tingle. Mrs. Upton had the devotions and Mrs. Roger Hawthorne presented the final lesson on the study of the Psalms.

On Thursday, Dec. 15, the Circle members will go to Stuart where they will present their annual Christmas program at the Stuart Rest Haven.

Bakers Dozen
The Bakers Dozen Extension

club met at the home of Mrs. Dora Wallinger on November 17. The Lesson on Christmas Ideas was presented by Mrs. C. Bennett. The club will have a Christmas dinner party at the Town House in O'Neill on December 18 at 6:30 p.m.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Phipps went to Kansas City, Mo., to spend Thanksgiving at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Phipps and children. They also expect to spend several days vacationing before returning to Atkinson.
