A Poem
From Mrs. Eby . . .

—WANTED—LAYMEN—
Leave it only to the pastor and soon the church, will die;
Leave it to the womenfolk and youth will pass it by.
For the church is all that lifts us from the coarse and selfish mob,
And the church that is to prosper needs the laymen on the job.

Now a layman has his business and a layman has his joys,
But he also has the training of all our girls and boys;
And I wonder how he'd like it if there were no churches here,
And he had to raise his children in a godless atmosphere.

It's the churches special function to uphold the finer things;
To teach that way of living from which all that's noble springs;
But the pastor cannot do it single-handed and alone.
For the laymen of the country are the church's building stones.

When you see a church that's empty, though its doors are open wide,
It's not the church that's dying— it's the laymen who have died.
It's not just by song and sermon that the church's work is done,
It's the laymen of the country who for God must carry on.
