Chambers News

By Mrs. E. R. Carpenter

WCSs Twenty
Twenty members were present at the regular meeting of the WCSs which met Thursday at the Methodist church. Mrs. G. H. Grimes led the worship service and Mrs. Glen Grimes the lesson on "This is His Birthday." A dramatic dialogue entitled "The family Celebrates Christmas," was used to develop the theme of Christ's birthday. Participating were Mrs. Lloyd Shovel, Mrs. E. H. Medcalf, Mrs. Steve Shavlik, Mrs. Raymond Shoemaker, Mrs. Louis Neilson and Mrs. LaVern Hoerle.

Mrs. Steve Shavlik presided at the business session. A letter from Mrs. Esther Harris was read urging all church women to join either the Woman's Society or the Wesleyan Service Guild which is for business women.

All members whose birthdays were in October, November and December were given special recognition. Mrs. Fred Catron read a piece on Columbus Day which was followed by "America," sung by all. Mrs. Sarah Adams read the first Thanksgiving. A panel on "Early Thanksgiving" included Mrs. LaVern Hoerle, Mrs. Louis Neilson, Mrs. A. B. Hubbard and Mrs. E. R. Carpenter. A quiz contest followed by a quartette singing "Silent Night" closed the program.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Grimes and Mrs. Eugene Halsey drove to Milford Saturday. The latter visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Read and daughters, the others were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grimes and family. While at the Grimes home in Milford the group were pleased with a visit from Tommy Ressel who edits the Milford paper and who was formerly from the Chambers and O'Neill communities.

Mr. and Mrs. James Grimes returned home Sunday from Attumwa, Ia., where they had been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Loran Coppae and family.
