Cub Scouts At Atkinson Get Bobcat Pins

The newly re-organized Cub Scouts of Pack 180, Atkinson, held their first Pack Meeting Monday night, in the basement of the First Presbyterian church. Cubmaster Fred Roberts and assistant cubmaster, Irvin Krumm presented Bobcat pins to those completing the Bobcat requirements. Parents of the following boys received Bobcat pins and in turn pinned them on their sons: Robert Anson, Darryl Caldwell, Jr., Roger Christensen, Gary Frisch, Dan Hawthorne, Frank Kuehn, Alan Krumm, Max Mills, Greg Pospichal, Jack Ramsay, Michael Shippen, Roger Upton, and Eddie Wilson.

Den Mothers are Mrs. Zola Mills, and Mrs. Edna Kuehn, in Den I and Mrs. Betty Kersting and Mrs. Bonnie Pospichal in Den II. Den I presented a skit "A Trip To The Moon" and Den II sang a song and displayed a poster on fire prevention. About 50 persons were present. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

The Women's association of the First United Presbyterian church held their December meeting in the church basement on Saturday. Mrs. Margaret Watson's group which was lowest in the fundraising drive during the year served refreshments.

The program, "The Meaning of Christmas," featured a candle light ceremony and was presented by Mrs. Charles Shane, Mrs. Jim Puckett, Mrs. Ronald Watson, Mrs. Oliver Shane, Mrs. Betty Kersting and others. Penny socks and birthday money were collected.

Mrs. Violet went to Auburn to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Clark and family. She returned to her home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Raymer went to Lincoln Sunday and returned Tuesday. On Thursday they left for California, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. Louis Zahradnick returned home Wednesday from Kansas City where she received medical attention.

CELIA HOME-MAKERS

The Celia Homemakers Extension Club met at the home of Mrs. Inez Hayes in Atkinson Tuesday afternoon with eleven members and one guest present. The guest was Mrs. Carl Gettner.

Mrs. Byrl Beck conducted the meeting. Roll call was answered by "Why I Vote".

The club voted to purchase a new flag and to assess each member an additional dollar to provide funds for future expenditures.

Ideas for Christmas gift-making were presented and displayed by club members. A demonstration on making pillows and various articles from art foam was presented by Mrs. Gettner.

The annual Christmas party is planned for December 20 at the home of Mrs. Robert Hendricks with Mrs. Merrill Smith as co-hostess. Mrs. John Kenny was chosen as sh-in-in to be remembered.

The reorganization of The Clover 4-H Club was held at the home of Miss Helen Martens. A covered-dish supper was held for the members and their parents.

Officers for the coming year are: Connie Moeller, president; Patty Bonenberger, vice-president; Margaret Seger, secretary; Margie Gilg, news reporter; Billy Gilg and Joe Wilson recreation leaders and Dora Ellen Ferris and JoAnn Scripser, song leaders.

The next meeting will be held at Connie Moeller's and the members will go Christmas caroling.

The WSCS of the Methodist church held their annual Christmas meeting Wednesday, Dec. 7 at the church. A program emphasizing Christmas carols was presented and a film was shown. The program committee included Mrs. Richard Braun, Mrs. Dean Fleming, Mrs. Jay Jungman, and Mrs. A. D. Dobrovolsky. The circle chairmen served as hostesses.

The Mariners of the First United Presbyterian church met in the church basement Sunday for a pot-luck supper. Twenty-two members and two guests, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McClurg were present. A white elephant sale was held after the meeting with Elmer McClurg serving as the auctioneer. Plans were made to go Christmas caroling.

Christmas decorations and games were provided by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Upton, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Steven, Mr. and Mrs. Don Butterfield, Mr. and Mrs. Don Bzesotarski, and the Rev. Raymond Kersting.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Steven.

RANCHO KEEPERS

The Rancho Keepers Extension Club met at the home of Mrs. E. J. Gotschall Monday, December 5. The lesson on rug making was presented by Mrs. Lyle Addison. Proceeds from the bazaar will go to the Cedars Children's Home in Lincoln; provide a two-year subscription to a children's magazine for the Atkinson Memorial Hospital; children's books for the Atkinson Township Library; and provide something for a needy family in Atkinson.

The Christmas party will be held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lyle Addison.
