

O'Neill Teacher Is Featured in State Magazine

CHAMBERS — A local woman has been featured in the Nebraska Educational News, the official publication of the Nebraska State Education association.

This woman is Mrs. Lorraine Smith, Chambers, third grade teacher in the O'Neill public school. She was selected as a typical Nebraska teacher from among the many attending the summer session of the state university.

Lorraine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Walter. She was born and reared in the community, graduating from the Chambers high school with the class of 1937. She attended Wayne State Teachers college and has taught 14 years. In working toward her degree in education, she has taken summer courses at Wayne, Seward and the University of Nebraska.

Her husband, Wayne Smith, is a ranch and trucker. They have a son, Dean, who graduated from Chambers high school last year, and a daughter, Judy, a junior at Chambers. Mrs. Smith has been a 4-H club leader for a number of years and is active in community affairs; also is a member of St. Paul's Lutheran church.

The publication featured Mrs. Smith in a full day of activity with pictures and interview. Her days in college began with a class at 7 a.m. and she was pictured in this and other classes, also at lunch and at the close of the day.

Mrs. Smith, who enjoys her profession to the fullest, states that "summer school is essential for anyone who continues teaching."

Funeral Services Held Wednesday For Naper Man

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Sept. 27 at the Congregational church at Naper for Walter Edward Nicolaus, 64, who died at his home Sept. 23. The Rev. Delbert Permann officiated. Burial was in the Naper cemetery.

Walter E. Nicolaus was born in Howard county, Nebr., March 4, 1897 to John and Mary Nicolaus. He came with his parents to Boyd county in 1901.

On November 16, 1927 he was united in marriage to Freda Faatz. The couple were the parents of three children, sons Harley and Dale and a daughter, Mrs. Lester (Arlene) Neumiller.

Mr. Nicolaus was a member of the Congregational church for 31 years and helped reorganize the First Congregational church of Naper of which he served for 20 years in various capacities in the church.

Pallbearers were Paul Engelhart, Lester Anderson, Chris Rockholm, Jim Cerny, Grant Reber and John Stahlecker.

Survivors include his wife, Freda, sons, Harley and Dale and one daughter, Mrs. Lester (Arlene) Neumiller, eight sisters and four brothers.

DIPLOMACY AND MANAGEMENT are qualities earned early by the Waring quintet in the days when the above transportation furnished free rides for Waring and the neighborhood kids. It was quite apt to take a whole family to persuade the long eared, slow witted, shaggy and temperamental quadruped into a command performance. Have YOU ever tried leading one of that breed when he braced himself and settled back into a no-go position, feigning sleep and a complete dis-interest in the plans for the day that most certainly included giving of free rides for the kids?

Sneaky little tricks were often resorted to and persuaders used might include a board with a nail in the end or a mule whip in singing contortion on the back of the defenseless and thick hided burro. Yeah, it took a good one to handle this lazy transportation problem. From left to right the Waring's are: Glen, Gerald (Jerry), Dale, Nellie and Kenneth. You will have met Ken in the county clerk's office in O'Neill and Nellie has been Mrs. J. W. Finch Jr., this quite sometime. Many of you will even remember having met the burro in days gone by.
