

Sharon Mitchell, Robert Mitchell Exchange Vows

ATKINSON — A 7 p.m. candlelight ceremony was performed Saturday, Sept. 30, at the Butte Community church uniting in marriage Miss Sharon Kay Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Mitchell, and Robert L. Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell, all of Atkinson.

Performing the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Elden Bergen. Church decorations included candelabra and baskets of red and white gladioli. Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Vera Tomek, organist, and Robert Hendricks, vocalist.

The bride was attired in a gown of handclipped Chantilly lace over tulle and satin. The bodice featured a scalloped Sabrina neckline, embellished with pearls and sequins, and long tapering sleeves with tiny self-covered buttons at the wrist also at the back of the dress. The aisle-wide lace skirt had inserts of tulle, trimmed with appliques of lace. Her double waist-length veil of imported illusion fell from a crown fashioned of pearl loops designed in seven points and accented with drop seed pearls. Her bouquet was a cascade of red roses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Donald Mitchell. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Larry Mitchell and Mrs. Gary Art, Spencer. They wore identical dresses of red lace over satin designed with cummerbunds of red chiffon which fell into a big bow with long streamers in the front. The sleeveless dresses featured rounded necklines. Their headpieces were white circular veils of illusion held in place by white headbands. They carried colonial bouquets of white carnations.

Donald Mitchell brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. A brother of the bride, Larry Mitchell, and Rudy Dvorak were groomsmen. Ushers were Kenneth Mitchell, O'Neill, brother of the bridegroom, and Fred Dunn.

Flower girl was Cindy Syffe, and Dennis Garwood was ring bearer. Gary Mitchell, brother of the bridegroom, and Roger Angus were candlelighters.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. John Schoberg, Omaha, and Mrs. Russell Angus, Spencer, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Lulu Dunn, Atkinson, presided at the coffee service, and Mrs. Wilbur Mitchell served the punch. Mrs. Bennett Dewall, O'Neill, was in charge of the guest book. Arranging the gifts were Mrs. Carrol Olson, Miss Patty Horst, Mrs. Ray Coburn and Miss Roma Fundus. Serving the bride's table were the Misses Judy Syffe, Joanne Schoberg and Marjorie Lewis.

Mrs. Elmer Holm was hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ed Horst, Vern Dix, Marion Mohr, Wilford Art, Bob Ellwanger and Herman Schroetin.

The bride graduated from Butte high school and was employed in Atkinson for one year.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Atkinson high school and has been in the ranching business with his father.

In the evening the couple entertained their friends at a wedding dance in the Butte Legion hall. After a wedding trip through the Black Hills they will make their home on a ranch south of Atkinson.

Janice Micanek Weds Dale Wood At Lynch Wood

LYNCH — Miss Janice Lere Micanek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Micanek, Lynch, and Dale Henry Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wood, Ewing, were united in marriage Sunday evening, Oct. 1, at the Christ Lutheran church in Lynch.

The Rev. Donald Burgdorf officiated at the 7 p.m. double ring candlelight ceremony before an altar flanked with candelabra and large baskets of white mums and pompons. Mrs. Harlan Larson, sister of the bridegroom, was vocalist, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Walter Wesche.

The bride wore a traditional white gown of bridal taffeta and Chantilly lace. The molded bodice of lace over taffeta accented a square neckline that formed a V in the back. Long fitted lace sleeves ended in points over the wrist. A graduated tunic edged in lace revealed a bouffant floor length skirt that fell gracefully into an aisle-wide chapel train. A small jeweled cap held in place the fingertip silk illusion veil. She carried a cascade of white mums and pompons.

Miss Joan Andersen, Omaha, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Wayne Hoffman, O'Neill, Miss Joyce McGill, Verdel, and Miss Helen Halstead, Lynch. They wore identical gowns of royal blue satin, styled with a V neckline, small self-fabric bows at front waist and semi-bouffant skirts. Headpieces and slippers were of matching color. Each carried a semi-crescent bouquet of mums and pompons. Bernard Gribble served as best man. Groomsmen were Wayne Hoffman, Zane Edwards and Leonard Brown. John Lee Farrier, Chambers, and Harold Gene Micanek, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

Candlelighters were Harold Larson and Mauri Micanek. Mary Jo Howe, Fremont, was ring bearer. Following the ceremony a reception was given by the bride's parents. Mrs. Donald Johnson acted as hostess, greeting the 250 guests. Mrs. Pete Mulhair and Mrs. Wesley Howe, Fremont, sister of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake. Presiding at the serving table were Miss Pauline Mulhair, serving punch, Mrs. Phyllis Mulhair, serving the bridegroom's cake, and Mrs. Emil Micanek, pouring coffee. Assisting at the bridal table were the Misses Helen Sobotka and Marilyn Graham. The gifts were recorded by the Misses Carole Johnson, Joanne Lansworth, Faye Weidner and Mrs. J. L. Farrier. Miss Corrine Brinker, O'Neill, registered the guests, and Mrs. W. Moffett had charge of flowers.

The bride is a graduate of Lynch high school and Commercial Extension School of Omaha. At present she is employed by Consumers Public Power of O'Neill.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Chambers high school and is engaged in ranching.

Following a wedding trip to the southwestern states the couple will be at home on a ranch south of O'Neill.
