Holt SWCD Wins Award for Year's Activity

The Holt Soil and Water Conservation District this year won the World-Herald award for supervisors activity. Previous awards were won in 1948 and 1951.

Competition in this year's contest was the following other districts: Cherry county, K-B-R, Grant-Hooker, Blaine-Thomas, Loup-Garfield, Cedar River, Valley, Custer, Logan-McPherson, Sugar Loaf, Pine Ridge, White River and Sheridan.

The award is based on the activities of District board members. At the beginning of each year a chairman is selected for each of the many activities carried out by the board of supervisors and it is his responsibility to take the leadership in that particular phase of the work.

These activities include such things as: annual meeting, preparation of the annual report, the annual work plan, soil stewardship activities, the FFA-SWCD program, 4-H conservation, land and/or range judging, conservation education, tours, contractors meeting, assistance with Grassland Day, the seventh and eighth grade conservation day and a seed producers meeting.

Community Action Wins Deferment For Atkinson Doctor

ATKINSON — A community rallied last week to keep Dr. R. A. Serbousek from having to report back to active duty in the army.

Dr. Serbousek, one of two doctors in Atkinson, received orders to report to Camp Carson October 20 and was given a 15-day extension. Atkinson citizens began sending telegrams, telephone calls and letters to their Congressman Dave Martin and Senators Carl Curtis and Roman Hruska, urging their aid.

By Wednesday morning, the congress representatives notified Atkinson community residents that Dr. Serbousek's orders had been rescinded and that he had been placed in the stand-by reserves.

Dr. Serbousek last spring finished two years of voluntary active duty during which he served 15 months in Germany. Upon his return he resumed his association with Dr. J. E. Ramsay in the Atkinson Clinic.

How True

A clergyman in a neighboring town had been much annoyed by the way members of the congregation had of looking around to take stock of late comers.

After enduring it for some time he said on entering the reading desk one Sunday: "Brethren, I regret to see that your attention is called away from your religious duties by your natural desires to see who comes in behind you. I propose henceforth to save you the trouble by naming each person who may enter, and hope that the services will then be allowed to proceed without interruption."

He then began: "Dearly beloved," but paused halfway to insert, "Mr. Stubbins with his wife and daughter." Mr. Stubbins looked rather surprised, but the minister with perfect gravity, resumed his exhortation. Presently he again paused: "Mr. Curtis and William Diggle." The abashed congregation kept their eyes studiously bent on their books.

The service continued in the most orderly manner, the parson interrupting himself every now and then to name some newcomer.

At last he said, still with the most perfect gravity: "Mrs. Symons in a new bonnet." In a moment he felt his mistake, but it was too late. Every feminine head in the congregation had turned around! (Printed in the Frontier November 2, 1911)
