Joanne Lansworth, Thomas Langan Wed In Catholic Rite

Yellow and bronze mums and pom poms decorated the altar of St. Patrick's church in O'Neill Saturday, Oct. 14, for the wedding of Miss Joanne Lansworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Lansworth, and Thomas E. Langan, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Langan, all of O'Neill. Mass, Timothy J. O'Sullivan officiated at the 10:30 a.m. double ring ceremony and nuptial mass. Serving the mass were Morris and Richard Pongratz. St. Patrick's choir members, accompanied by Sister M. Flores at the organ, furnished traditional wedding music.

The bride was attired in a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace with long fitted bridal sleeves. The bodice featured an illusion neckline accented by a wing-tipped collar. The bouffant skirt had deep lace trimmings tied in back and a deep lace overskirt flounce in front with an overskirt of lace. Her veil of silk illusion was caught by a crown of sequins and pearls. She carried a white candelabra on a white prayer book. Streamers falling from the bouquet were entwined with a pearl rosary.

Maid of honor was Miss L. Donna McNulty. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Leonard Brown, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Rita Vequist. They wore identical dresses of emerald green Satin Ducharme, styled with fitted princess bodice, with three-quarter length sleeves and scoop necklines. The full skirts were controlled with unpressed pleats and a flat front which was tailored with a self-front waistline bow. They carried semi-cascades of yellow and bronze mums and pom poms.

Serving as best man was Ben Bazelman. Groomsman were Philip Langan, brother of the bridegroom, and Richard Graham, Alameda. Seating the guests were Nick Hammerlun and Leonard Brown.

Immediately following the ceremony a party was given at the M & M cafe. Two hundred friends and relatives attended the reception, given by the brides parents, at the O'Neill Country club. Acting as hostess was Mrs. J. McNulty. Mrs. Ben Bazelman had charge of the guest book. Serving the punch was Miss Aileen Wilkinson. Mrs. Nick Bamold and Mrs. Ed Ritts out and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Bernard Gribble poured coffee. Recording the gifts were Mrs. Dale Wood, Mrs. Wayne Hoffman, Miss Helen Sobotka and Miss Carole Johnson.

Serving the brides table were the Misses Carlene Pongratz, Pamela Hammerlun, Brenda Lansworth, Janice Vequist, Cindy Bowen, Lynda Hynes, Gwendolyn and Trudy Schultz. Bernelda Pongratz and Ann Grutsch also assisted.

The bride, a graduate of Saint Mary's Academy, is employed at the office of the County Superintendent of Schools. The bridegroom, also a graduate of St. Mary's, is engaged in ranching.

Following a wedding trip to Denver, Colo., the couple will be at home in O'Neill.

Classics by Margaret Colman was presented by Mrs. K. L. Van Voorhis. The club voted to sponsor the Dana college dancers November 10 as a library benefit.

Gloria Cernousek Weds G. Volquardsen At Verdigre

VERDIGRE — Miss Gloria Cernousek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Cernousek sr., and Glen Volquardsen, son of Mrs. Mary Volquardsen, all of Verdigre, were united in the marriage Sunday, Oct. 15, in the First Methodist church at Verdigre.

The Rev. David Gustafson, Creighton, officiated at the 2 a.m. ceremony in the presence of approximately 250 guests. Baskets of bronze and gold mums decorated the altar. Miss Martha Chocholousek was organist and accompanied the vocalist, Miss Francis Hildreth.

A gown of hand-clipped Chantilly lace over tulle and satin was selected by the bride for her wedding. It featured a scalloped Sabrina neckline, embellished with pearls and sequins, and long tapering sleeves. The aisle-wide lace skirt was designed with inserts of tulle trimmed with appliques of lace. The triple-tiered bouffant veil of silk illusion was caught by a crown trimmed with pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white orchid with sprays of lilies of the valley on a white prayer book.

Miss Pat Volquardsen, Meadow Grove, was maid of honor, and Mrs. Lawrence Miller, Omaha, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They wore gold acetate satin dresses styled with low cut midrifts. A delicate rose motif pattern was featured at the waistlines above the bell shaped skirts. Their brown hats of velvet were adorned with tiny bows and veils. They each carried large bronze mums.

Cernousek sr. was Alfred Cernousek jr., brother of the bridegroom, and Lawrence Miller, Omaha, and Wabers were Donald Volquardsen, Orchard, brother of the bridegroom, and Adolph Latzel, O'Neill.

Miss Tammie Montgomery, Sioux City, Ia., was flower girl. Roger Kriz, Neola, Ia., was ring bearer.

A reception was held in the ZCJB hall basement after the ceremony. Mrs. Adolph Latzel, Mrs. Joe Viteran and Mrs. Louis Pavlik cut and served the wedding cake. Miss JoAnn Chaulupnik and Miss Sharon Sander presided at the guest book, and Mrs. Earl Miller, O'Neill, and Mrs. Frank J. Cernousek took care of the gift table.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of the Verdigre high school. Mr. Volquardsen is employed by the Farmers Union station at Verdigre where the couple will reside following a wedding trip.
