

Ewing News

By Mrs. Harold Harris

The Thank Offering service, held annually at the United Presbyterian church, was conducted Sunday during the worship hour, sponsored by the Women's Missionary society. The guest speaker was Martha Temple, a registered nurse and medical missionary from Cameroun, West Africa. Her description of the people and their environment indicated the need of teaching health and sanitation in their homes. Ina Bennett conducted the service assisted by Mrs. Ralph Shrader, Mrs. Willie Napier, Mrs. Wayne Shrader and Mrs. Ora Switzer. The collection of $14 was taken by Mrs. Lionel Gunter, Mrs. Wilbert Napier, Mrs. Ralph Shrader and Mrs. Willie Shrader. A special musical selection was given by a choir composed of members of the Society. Mrs. Wilbur Bennett was the pianist. Following the service a covered dish dinner was served in the annex to the large congregation. Miss Temple had a number of articles on display from West Africa. She also answered questions. She was a weekend guest at the home of Ina Bennett.

The Rev. Mrs. Nina Haines and Mrs. Edna Laquest left Monday morning for Crawford where they visited friends until Wednesday.

Larry Spragg, Omaha, was a guest of his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Lester Spragg, Sunday.

The MYF group of the Ewing Methodist church attended a district rally at Spencer Sunday afternoon. The theme of the meeting was "Stewardship." The Ewing group were in charge of the closing devotions. In attendance from Ewing were Jane and Rose Lynn Spragg, Marie Davis, Robert and Karen Woeppel and Evelyn Snyder. Mrs. Waldo Davis accompanied the group.

Mrs. G. Zimmerman, Mrs. S. M. Burtwistle and Mrs. L. M. Carter, winners of the recent contest of the No Thank You Topp club of Ewing were guests of the losers at the Steak house in O'Neill Wednesday evening for a 7 p.m. dinner. A short business meeting was held following the dinner with Mrs. Louise Anthony presiding.
