HENRECY'S Golden Dominos

Hereford friends and fellow stockmen, we warmly welcome you to our annual fall sale at the ranch Monday, November 6, 1½ miles east of Gregory, South Dakota. Having been interested in Herefords for half a century, we have successfully and constructively produced Herefords of superior quality and conformation, as well as size for age, with outstanding performance. The production of large meat-type Herefords, with overall emphasis placed on dependability and performance-proven animals, is our number one objective in the production of breeding stock. Great family bloodlines, constructive proper crosses, with popular parent inheritance are worthy factors represented in this sale offering. The entire sale offering is guaranteed in every way. The animals were summered on grass and raised in a practical manner, with their future usefulness for their new owners always in mind.

Sale will be held in our new heated sale pavilion at the ranch One and one-half miles east of Gregory, South Dakota
