Verdigre News

By Vac Randa

Halloween night in Verdigre was quiet with only the little folks and their many weird masks visiting the neighborhoods and asking for the usual "trick or treat". Marshall Miller had no reports to make on damages in Verdigre that night. He and his assistants patrolled the streets that night.

The annual American Legion Post 239 benefit dance will be held Sunday in the ZCBJ hall. Proceeds from the dance will be used toward expenses for the Legion building which was recently purchased on main street south of the post office building.

Ted Ward, vocational agriculture instructor, has announced awards were presented to members of the Verdigre vocational agriculture class at the Nebraska wheat show held in Lexington October 19. Winning awards were Gene Marshall, Neil Uhrir, Marvin Soucek and Ronald Pavlik.

Among the Verdigre hunters who shot deer are Melvin Thompson, a six-point buck, Eddie Hass, Tom Chocholousek, Frank Novak, Joe Farnik and Chuck Jarman. Mr. and Mrs. Art Barta and Mrs. Grafton Franklin, all of Verdigre, were business visitors in Verdigre October 30.
