Mr. and Mrs. William Brockmuller, Olga and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brockmuller, Scribner, visited at the William Lohsen home Monday.

WCSO of the Methodist church met Thursday at the church with Mrs. Mary Hemenway and Mrs. Wayne Switzer as hostesses. Mrs. Switzer presided at the meeting. Devotions were by Mrs. Eric Mincerich. The lesson, "God, Light of the World," was given by Mrs. Douglas Hemenway. Mrs. Amos Switzer gave a report on the recent bazaar. The group voted to send cards of cheer with personal lines from each member to shut-ins. Prayers will also be said by the group for the unfortunate. Lyle Clark and his parents moved to Lincoln Friday where Lyle has employment as custodian in one of the schools.

Halloween has once more come and gone, with a little more spookery this year than usual. Spooks had a yen for hay, machinery and barrels that moved fast and in a wide range of directions, the little folks in their weird attire made the usual tricks or treats rounds and found the welcome mat out at all homes. Late in the evening a faint tap at our door and investigating found two very little spooks one in a long black dress, the other not over two feet high calmly enjoying the contents of a bottle of milk via the nipple. This was the youngest so far to visit us, I believe.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hansen, Omaha, visited with relatives in the community this week. They were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Caskey Wednesday, Nov. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell and family, Omaha, were weekend visitors at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Jeffrey and family and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jundt, Creighton.

Mrs. Nellie Hamilton is reported to be improved after being seriously ill for a few days. She suffered a stroke October 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Caskey, Omaha, were Friday overnight and Saturday visitors of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Caskey.

A Poem From Mrs. Eby

—FEAR NOT—

Fear makes cowards of us all, if we fear our country is sure to fall, that's a new thought for Americans today provoked by the people just across the way. They are driving death dealing bombs in the air, intended it's true, our people to scare into giving up our "way of life" for their heartless plans in the cold war's strife.

Oh! Let's not be afraid of tomorrow for God is already there. He sees the path from beginning and will all our tomorrows prepare.

If we'll walk by His side, have faith and abide a place where all is joy and peace. This is the place where God will provide, a place from all fears release.

And not doubt for doubt sees the obstacle, but faith sees one day, doubt dreads to take a step, while faith soars away on high, doubt questions, "who believes?" while faith answers "I".

Yes, fear of bombs has gripped us, but God's bigger than Mr. K. He'll see us through if we'll just have faith, confessing our sins and pray.

So don't be afraid of tomorrow, God is already there. He's ready to help if we'll lift up our hearts in humble soul searching prayer.

The promise: "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then will they hear from heaven. I will forgive their sins and will heal their land." (Cron 7:14) Della Stuart Eby
