Bristow Farmer Killed in Truck Mishap

BRISTOW — A 34-year-old Bristow farmer, Edwin Hood, was killed Thursday night when his pickup truck went out of control on a township road eight miles southeast of Spencer and pinned him underneath the vehicle.

His body was discovered by his wife who had become concerned about his lateness in returning. Mrs. Hood and a neighbor, Bernard Kocin, Bristow, got a tractor and pulled the truck off Hood's body.

Boyd county Sheriff Claude Collins believed that a door on Hood's truck had come open and when he attempted to close it he lost control of the truck and it overturned. He was alone in the truck.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 3 p.m. in the Trinity Lutheran church at Bristow, conducted by the Rev. Robert Peterson. Interment, under the direction of the Jones Funeral home at Spencer was in the Bristow cemetery.

Edwin Hood was born April 18, 1927 to James R. and Onie A. Kreger Hood in Holt county. He was married to Iona Faye Beiler April 14, 1946 at Hood River, Ore.

He is survived by his wife, Iona; one daughter, Donna June; two sons, Tony and Jackie; his mother, Mrs. Onie Hood, Butte; five sisters, Mrs. Francis Obermire, Hood River, Ore.; Mrs. C. M. Young, Reno, Nev.; Mrs. Lorence Remter, Bristow, Ore.; Albert Stroh, The Dalles, Ore.; and Mrs. B. K. Lindgren, Portland, Ore.; and four brothers, Jim and Delbert, Butte, Henry, Stuart, and John, Portland, Ore.

Pallbearers were Max Allen, Eddie Dean Danielson, Tom Kubik, Emil Prokop, Willard Landholm and Emil Tejral.
