To Nebraskans...

... a glass of beer is many things

Folks from all over know there's nothing like a good Nebraska steak. Raised on the lush grasses of Nebraska west, finished out in the feed lots of eastern and central Nebraska... prize beef cattle furnish steaks that are juicy, tender and full of flavor. Eating like this is a symbol of the good life. And so is a glass of good beer.

But more than that, beer is an example of the freedoms Nebraskans hold so highly... a freedom to choose what YOU, as an individual, want. It is this sort of freedom, this sort of right which should belong to every man, everywhere.
