A Poem From Mrs. Eby ...

-Just Suppose-

If your boy or your girl were in danger, in imminent peril of death, were standing unwarned in its pathway, do you thik we would waste any breath in complaining about the "depression" bewailing our loss and our lack, when a clarion call should be ringing to summon the wanderer back? Oh! What if our own were in peril, would the sacrifice then be too great, even though we must strain to the utmost to save them before 'twas "too late"?

Then away with delays and excuses, there are souls lost in sin-darkened ways, and the voice of the Great Guide is calling for searchers, with torches ablaze, to carry the light to the hopeless in the homeland and over the sea; For the Father who seeks the unsaved ones is depending on you and on me.

Send the clarion call of salvation ringing out in its wonderful might, send the guides with their gospel-lit torches, for wan-
