Letters to the Editor

Whiting, Iowa December 11, 1961 Dear Sir

Do you know that you have the most beautiful Christmas lighted street that I have ever seen? It is beauiful with all its rainbow colors and systematic arrangement. Its light canopy effect with no ugly scars of commercial admost facinating and its modest aire of serenity is most unusual. The blending of light and relative position arrangement are near to perfect.

From the east end of the street treat your eyes to a beauty surge and then as you drive westward I'm sure that you will feel as if passing beneath the Arc-de-Triumph. It is so appropriate in as much as it expresses throughout the Christmas spirit of Peace and Goodwill.

Thank you and a Merry Christ-

J. E. MacClure

Stuart, Nebr.

I am going to scribble you a few lines as I enjoy your part a pageant at the church Christin the O'Neill paper so much. I am wondering if you knew my father, Joseph Axtell? He came to Holt county in 1879 and took a homestead and tree claim

26 miles north of Atkinson in 1881. My mother came to Holt county and settled near there Page News with her father and mother and three sisters. They all went through some scary times with Indians, as well as hard times with drought, hail and grasshop-

In 1886 mother and papa were married, had apretty hard life but a happy one. Papa bored wells to help make a living so was gone a lot from home. Mother sewed for the neighbors as she was a seamstress by trade, but money was so scarce they paid her with whatever they had that she could use and a very little pay at that.

You living down south likely knew Harry White and his family and Fishers and Jay Robylers. We were very good friends My father passed away in 1911.

Mother and I stayed on the ranch until my health failed, so moved here to Stuart and my mother passed away four years ago at 105 years old. So, now I am alone and lonely, try to be a blessing and keep busy.

I am wondering if you were ever out to Dustin. Used to be a store, school, a church, blacksmith shop and printing office. The paper was called the Dustin Dispatch. I wonder if you would interested in it? Of course Dustin has been gone for years, like so many country stores which were such a blessing.

There was a lodge hall over the store and once a year they had a big oyster feed. Of course, we all came in wagens or a buggy, if lucky enough to own one and we really did have good times. Had literary and debates in the school twice a month during the winter and really had some hot arguments.

Well, Mr. Saunders, I've enjoyed writing to you. Perhaps you will read this and say, she doesn't know what she's talking about, or you may throw it in the wastebasket without reading it. Which ever it is, it's O.K. with me as it only cost 4 cents and I've enjoyed thinking over old
