Funeral Rites Wednesday for M. L. Sageser

AMELIA — Funeral services were held here Wednesday, Jan. 10, for one of the old-time settlers in the Chambers and Amelia communities, M. L. (Link) Sageser, 93, who died January 7 at the Bassett hospital.

The services were in the Amelia Methodist church and burial was in the Chambers cemetery.

M. L. Sageser was born in Woodhull, Ill., January 16, 1868 to James and Mary Sageser. The family moved to Atton, Ia., in 1870 and lived there until 1886 when they migrated by covered wagon to Chambers.

He was married to Lillian May Clauson March 17, 1898. They established their home in a sod house two and one-half miles south of Amelia and lived there for more than 60 years. Two sons were born to this couple. Mr. and Mrs. Sageser moved to Amelia in November, 1960.

Mr. Sageser was one of the early breeders of Hereford cattle in Holt county. He was active in many civic improvement affairs including the moving of the Amelia Methodist church from Green Valley to its present site.

He served as a member of the school board of the Glesed school for 50 years, and helped build the Amelia telephone line, repairing and servicing lines and phones for many years. He was a long-time member of the IOOF lodge in Chambers.

Surviving are his wife, May; two sons, Vern, Amelia, and Bower, Manhattan, Kan.; one grandson, Floyd E., Prairie Village, Kan., and one granddaughter, Sandra, Manhattan, Kan., and three great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held by Rev. Fred H. Johnson, George Fullerton and Beryl Wald.

John Krogh Dies January 12 in Minnesota

A former resident of this community, John Krogh, 73, died Friday, Jan. 12, in Woods Rest Home at Fairbault, Minn., after a lingering illness.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p.m. in the Assembly of God church at Fairbault. Burial was in Meadow Ridge cemetery.

John Krogh was born February 16, 1888 at Welch, Norway. He was married to Inez Harsin in 1910 at Pender and the couple farmed 30 years in the Spalding, Chambers and O'Neill communities before moving to Minnesota in 1940.

He is survived by his wife, Inez; four sons, Carl, O'Neill, Johnny, Antioch, Calif., Gene, Northfield, Minn., and Alvin, Fairbault; two daughters, Mrs. John Pinnit, Chadron, and Mrs. Don McClellan, O'Neill; 24 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.
