Jo Ann Shoemaker Weds Gerald Schaff Saturday Morning

Miss Jo Ann Kathryn Shoemaker, daughter of Leonard Shoemaker, O'Neill, and Pfc. Gerald Joseph Schaff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schaff, Emmet, were united in marriage Saturday, Jan. 27, at 10 a.m. in St. Patrick's Catholic church. Msgr. Timothy O'Sullivan officiated at the double ring ceremony. Ronnie Clark and Larry Wanser were vocalists, accompanied by Sister M. Flores. The bride was attired in a sheer taffeta floorlength gown with a chapel sweep train. The bodice had a princess style front with a bustle along the hipline, featuring medallions of sequins and pearls. A rounded neckline was embellished with sequins and pearls while the tapered sleeves ended in bridal points. The full skirt featured bows in the back. Her brief veil of silk illusion was caught to a headpiece of sequins and pearls. She carried a show-er arrangement of red roses. Miss Peggy Sullivan was maid of honor, and she wore a Royal blue satin street-length dress which featured a fitted bodice and balloon type skirt. She carried a white fur muff with matching head band. Mrs. Larry Donlin, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Mary Ellen Shoemaker, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids and their ensembles were identical to that of the maid of honor. Michael Schaff, Omaha, served as best man. Groomsmen were Gene Shoemaker and Ronnie Smith. Tom Schaff, Atkinson, and Richard Shelmer and Larry Donlin were ushers. One hundred and seventy-five guests attended the reception in the American Legion hall. Mmes. Delbert Robertson, Wally O'Connell and Jerald Klinesmith presided at the table. Serving were Miss Loretta Sherman, Mrs. Mike Schaff and Miss Ruth Ann Schaff. Mrs. Ed Murphy, Miss LaDonna McNulty and Miss Sharon Marcellus took care of the gift table. Mrs. Elaine Snowardt had charge of the guest book. The bride attended St. Mary's academy and St. Joseph's School of Nursing at Omaha. She has been employed at St. Anthony's hospital. The bridegroom attended O'Neill public school and is presently serving with the United States Army at Fort Knox, Ky., where the couple will reside after a short wedding trip.
