A Poem
From Mrs. Eby ...

—Just Little Things—
John did no miracles, but all things John spoke of this Man were true — John 10:41
You may be discontent with yourself. You are no genius just laid on the shelf. Mediocrity is the law of our existence but plod right on with indomitable persistence. Jesus said of John: "There hath not appeared a greater than he." John's business was just bearing witness, don't you see. He was content to be just a voice, that men might think and make Jesus their choice.

Just a voice may be your lot, heard but not seen then sometime forgot. Do the common little things as beneath His eye, we may never see fruition but we sure can try. We just might do more good than we know, sowing seeds that start thought streams to flow; starting a life toward heaven above, to thinking of Christ and His infinite love.

Many little things all around us, that to Christ seem important but to us seem anonymous. In World War II a spectacular rescue was made; of 300,000 soldiers from Dunkirk, 'twas said. They were rescued by destroyers, freighters and battle ships, too, and many "little ships", anything that would float, its part could do. They by hundreds played a major role, rescuing soldiers to the very last soul.

Just work for the Lord, wherever you can. Names will not count when before Him we stand. Lord though our work be forever unseen, help us to do what we can, always faithful and clean.

(Della Stuart Eby)
