such a prolonged report or dramatic moments. Youth of today should read this narrative of their fathers' and brothers' and uncles' valor. How could there be a teen-age problem if the young could understand the discipline, self-sacrifice and devotion which their kinsmen offer in the air over Ploesti?"

WASHINGTON STAR: . . . "A thoroughly remarkable book. . . the account of detail is simply stupendous, organized with skill, one never loses a thread."

KANSAS CITY STAR: . . . "Here is history told in sweeping narrative power seldom found in published sagas of World War II."

BROOKLYN RECORD: . . . "A historic document with the punch and thrill of an exciting novel."

CHARLESTON NEWS & COURIER: . . . "Interest-holding and power packed."

PASADENA: . . . "There can't have been more heroes at one time in one place in our history. . . PLOESTI is a work of incredible research."

WILMINGTON MORNING NEWS: . . . "A wonderful story, well organized and complete."

MEMPHIS PRESS SCIMITAR: . . . "If some Hollywood producer doesn't grab film rights on this book soon, it'll be disappointed." — Bill Burk, aviation writer.

GREENVILLE PIEDMONT: "A remarkable work. . . tremendous immediacy for the reader."

MIAMI NEWS: . . . "A tremendous book. . . an excellent reconstruction of the mission."

LONG ISLAND NEWSDAY: . . . "In all its terrible detail. . . a tribute to the men who died and lived through it."

LINCOLN JOURNAL & STAR: . . . "recreated masterfully."

OMAHA WORLD-HERALD: . . . "This is certainly one of the most vivid and minutely documented accounts of a single military action on record."

HOUSTON POST: "An impressive account of the mission, so detailed that you can tell which gunner shot at which German fighter plane."

NEW YORK TIMES: . . . "The detailed and prodigiously researched account of that raid from its inception to its bloody aftermath. Technique used is the extremely difficult one of reconstructing the story from both sides, allied and enemy."

MINNEAPOLIS SUNDAY TRIBUNE: . . . "A remarkable vivid account. . . amazingly detailed. . . a splendid addition to World War II history works and a fine tribute to the heroes."
